The traditional Robinson coat of arms, emblazoned upon a green background, with three red cinquefoils on a silver chevron between three golden stags trippant, belonged to the family Robinson of Virginia, originally of Yorkshire, England.

The name Robert, from which Robinson is derived, comes from the Old High German meaning "bright in fame."

The Robinson shield is particularly beautiful and is symbolic of all that is Robinson. The green background represents youth; the three red cinquefoils, courage. The three golden stags trippant and the one stag upon the crest, portray the four different classes; the silver chevron symbolizes unity; the adornment about the shield, beauty. The scrolled motto Veritas Vincit meaning "Truth Conquers," signifies the dedication of this institution to the constant search for knowledge.

The quality and meaning infused into the conception and design of this coat of arms are but yesterday's accomplishments. The finishing touches of our shield must be provided by every individual so that the honor and pride for which this coat of arms stands will be sustained and strengthened.

Tommy,
 Well, I've
 finally gotten to know you better.
 You're really a great guy with the looks and personality to match. I don't ever change. Hope the good times and parties will be as great as usual.
 And better next year.
 Have fun this summer
 and at Beach Week.
 6/69 Lots of Love
 Susan

Volume IX

*Emblematic of all we are, or were or shall be,
Our emblazoned coat of arms.
A device of antiquity suitable to all time,
A guide, a goal, a standard.*

On our shield, the scrolled motto, "Truth Conquers."

*For we are constantly seeking
That gem-like flame
Which will forever vanquish darkness.*

*On our shield, the four golden stags trippant.
For we are four parts
Moving as one
To advance our heritage.*

*On our shield, the silver chevron centered.
For we are at the core
Separate lines joined in common bond
Uniting the whole.*

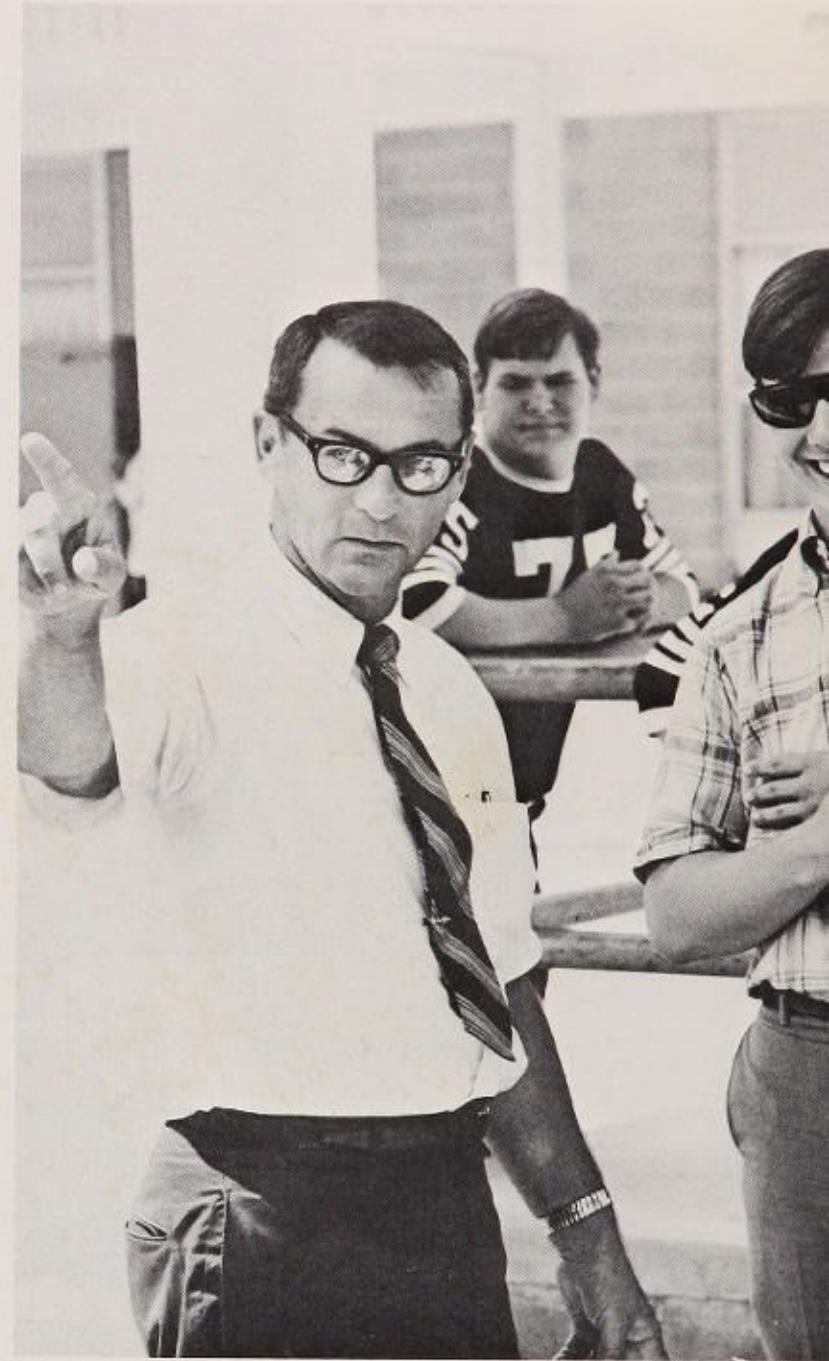

*On our shield, the three red cinquefoils.
For we are wearers of three badges.
Desire to replace better with best,
Courage to go yet another step, Pride to do it the right way.*

*On our shield, the floral adornment.
For we are blessed with the things of beauty.
Some things valued, Some things treasured, Some things loved,
That come our way but once and remain forever.*

*Our emblazoned coat of arms on a field of green.
A proud heritage, proudly received.
A link with Yesterday to which is forged
Today and Tomorrow.*

Here we were provided
A guide who showed us the way,
A goal worthy of attainment,
And a standard for living
Which anchors us when the only constant is change.

Here we were led
 To the thresholds of our minds
 And learned that only truth
 vanquishes the darkness
 Which obscures the horizons
 And limits visions.

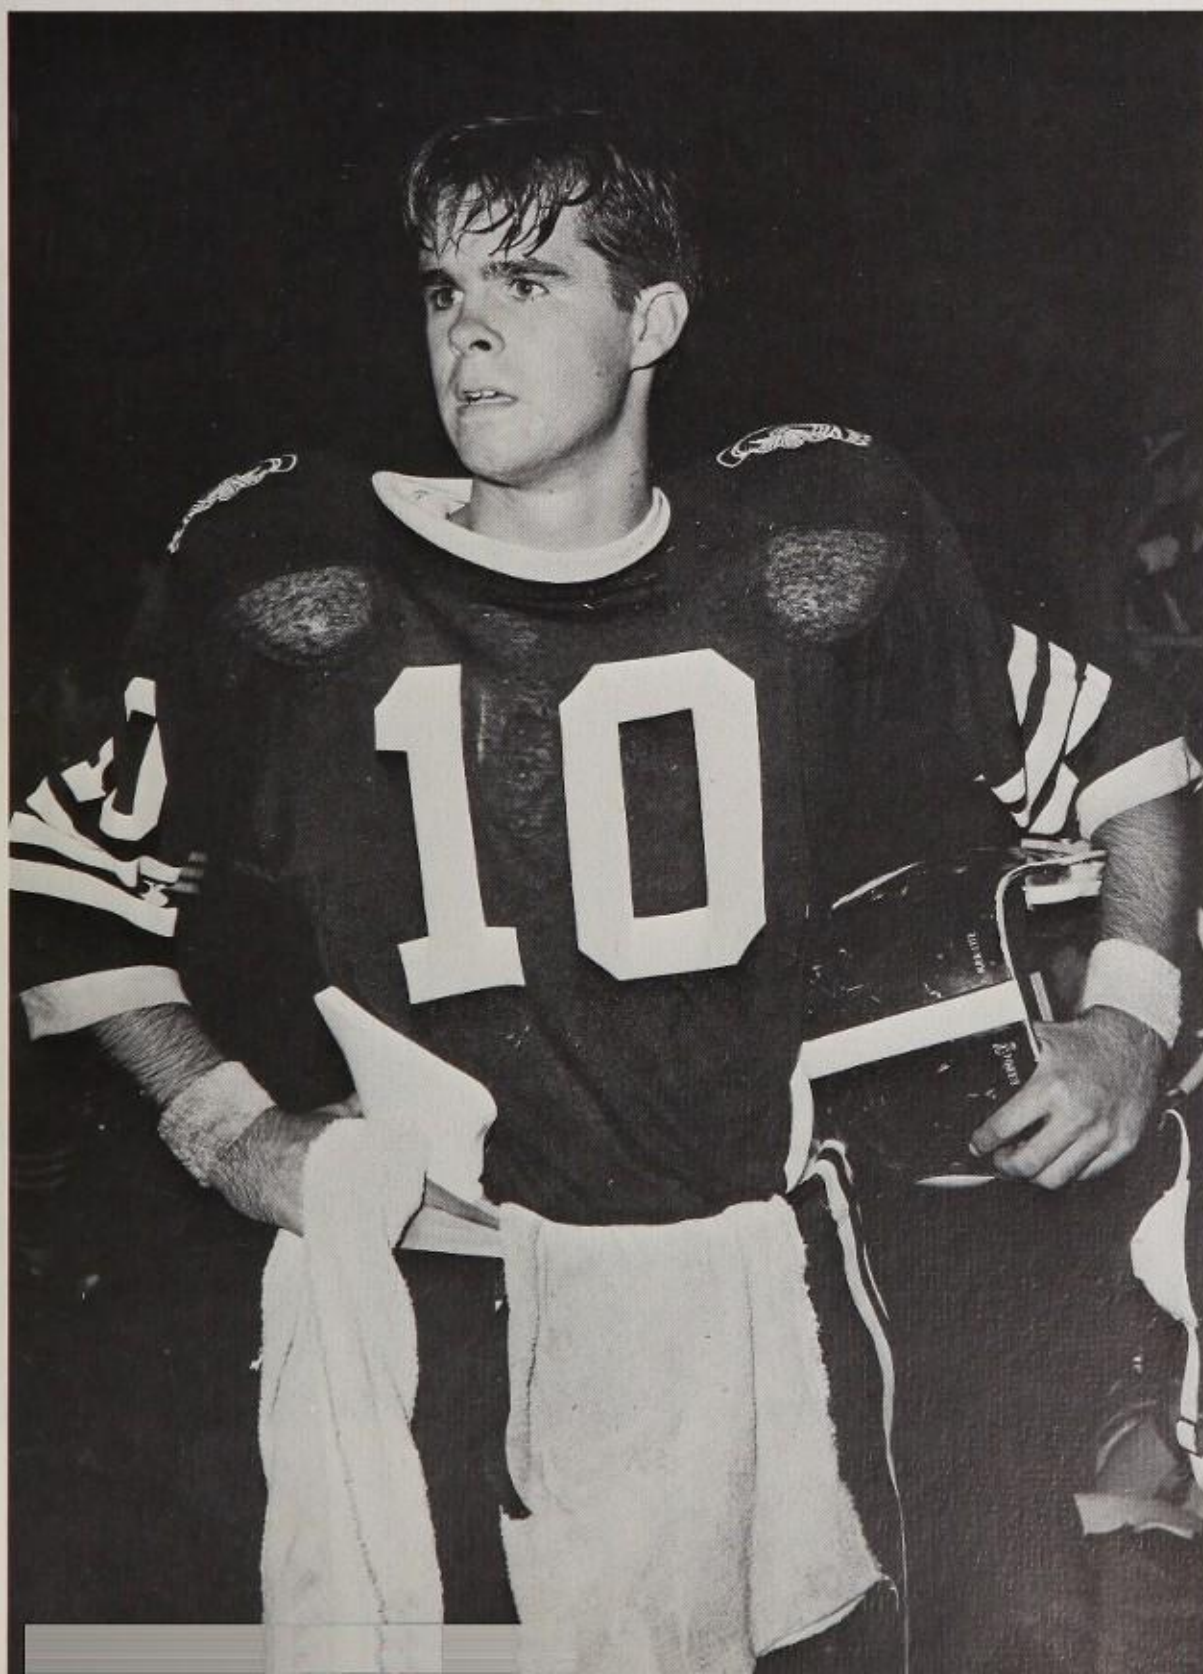

Here we were given
 The strength that comes with numbers
 And learned that the whole is greater Than the sum of the parts
 And the journey easier traveling together.

Here we were joined
With others in common bond
Of unity in purpose and service
And found that the only true giver
Is one who gives of self.

Here we were inspired
 With desire to replace better with best,
 Courage to go yet another step,
 And pride to do it the right way Because this is the way it had always been.

Here we were blessed
With the things of beauty
Not only of the heart but of the mind
And of the soul
Which are past but remain forever.

Here we were forged
Into the chain of yesterdays and tomorrows
And vowed that this link
Would be as strong as those that came before
And a model for those that follow.

Mr. Overstreet is delighted with a surprise birthday cake presented to him by the annual staff.

In after-hours, Mr. Overstreet weighs his afterthoughts and aftermaths.

"O" exemplifies the difference between appointed authority and deserved respect.

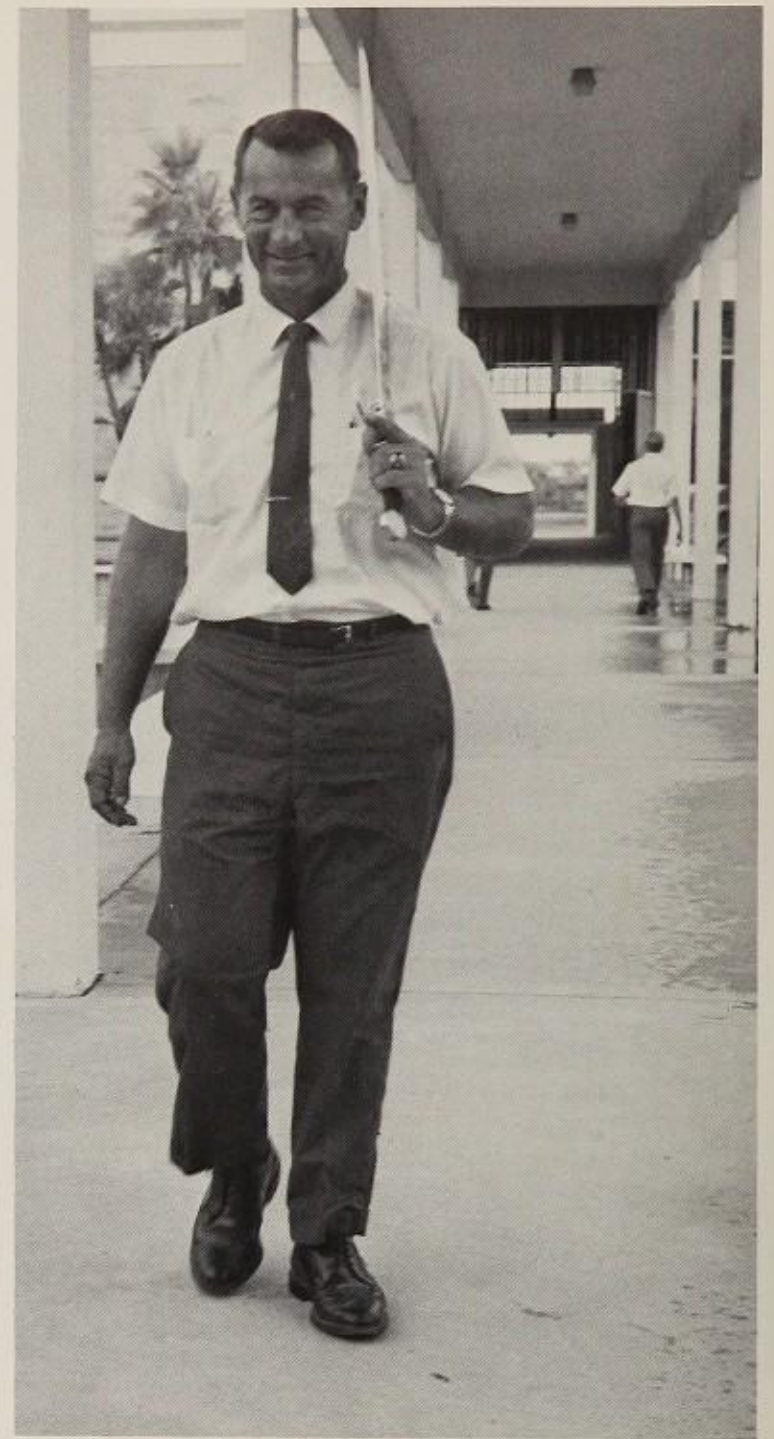

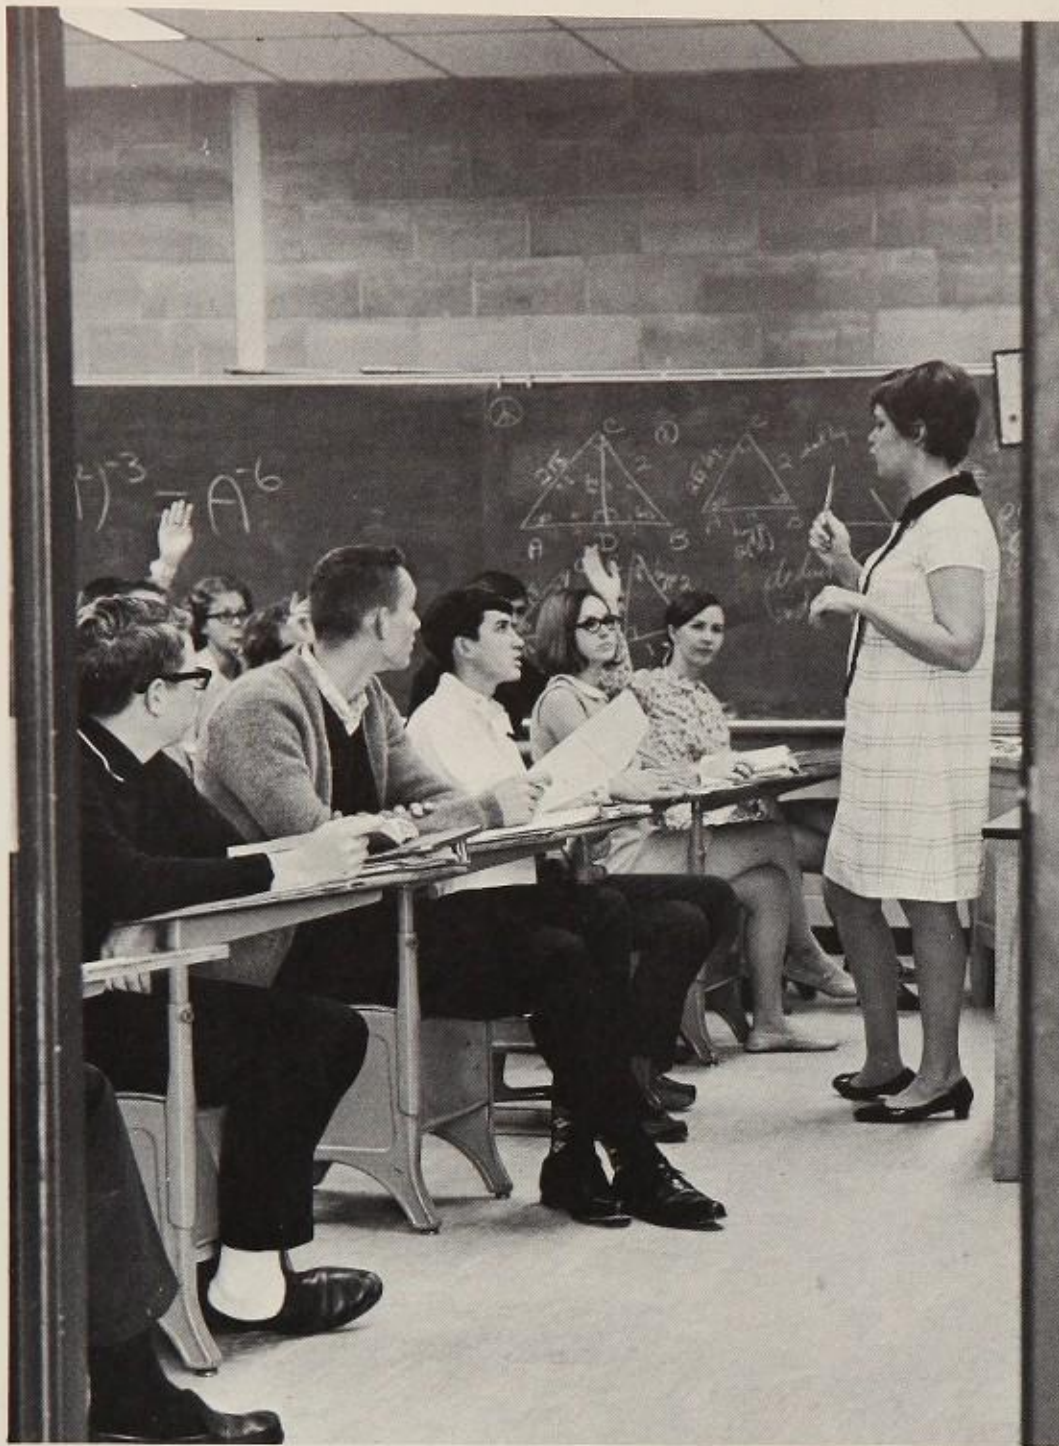

Mr. Jack Overstreet, the whole nine yards of what it's all about.

Wisdom, understanding, truth — a man called “O”

DEDICATION ... extending five fingers of perception rather than just an open hand of knowledge ... teaching with understanding as his goal rather than achievement ... giving a bit of inspiration to an unenlightened youth ... opening world windows instead of just cracking a door ... teaching Truth as the real Bible ... demonstrating to students that culture is more than lifting an eyebrow ... showing the difference between appointed authority and deserved respect ... scattering insight to his students as a farmer scatters feed ... developing character as well as minds ... painting silhouettes of teenagers against a shadow of poets ... tracing a dot to dot drawing from a school newspaper to a classic ... teaching tolerance of mankind ... making his students realize that the secrets of the heart can be found by knowing themselves ... exemplifying that life should be experienced with the whole nine yards ... looking through unpolished souls and uncovering hidden potential ... sharing his after-hours, afterthoughts, and aftermaths.

Mr. Overstreet strives to teach with understanding as his goal rather than his achievement.

Business broadens future prospects of opportunity

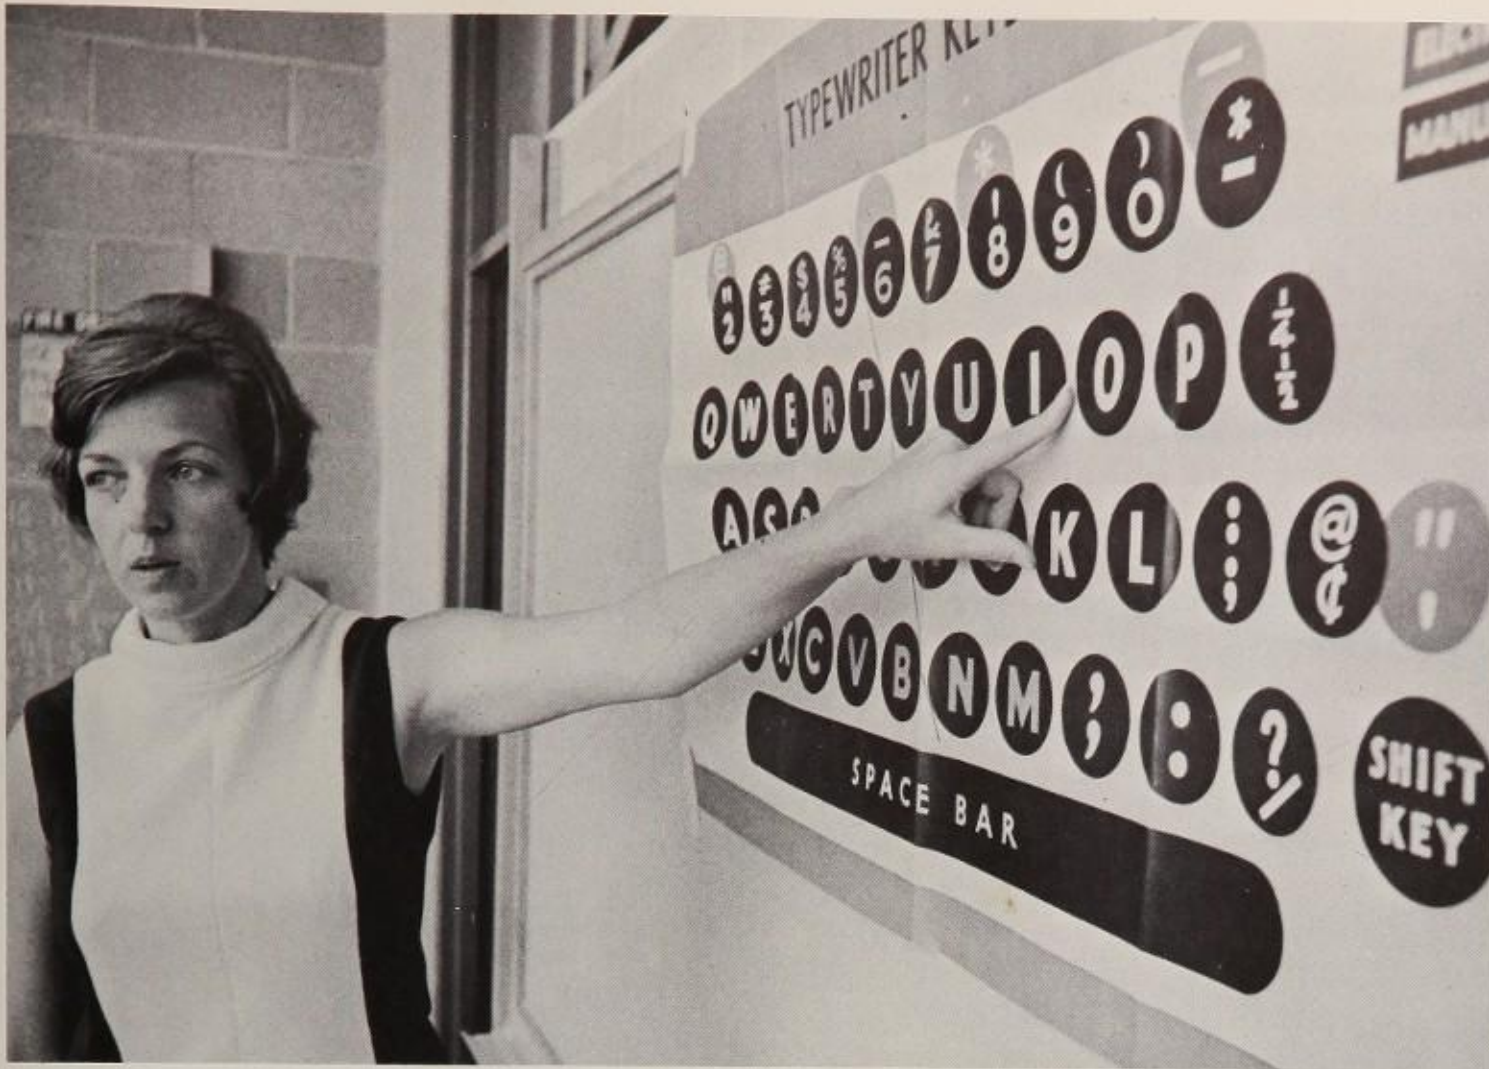

BUSINESS EDUCATION . . . developing occupational skills . . . preparing for time writing . . . typing without looking at the keyboard . . . taking shorthand dictation with great speed and accuracy . . . operating new machines . . . getting hands dirty from using the mimeograph machine . . . working with the calculator . . . studying about loans, savings, and investments . . . balancing your ledgers for bookkeeping . . . recording your transactions correctly . . . memorizing vocabulary words every Friday for Business English . . . making countless mistakes on letterforms . . . putting skills in practical use.

Wilma Bloomer and Dreamer Baker practice on conditioning exercises before Mr. Johnson calls for a time writing.

Kathy Werner employs a stylus to cut a stencil on the mimeoscope.

Mrs. Dawson points out to the class the location of the home keys.

Harry Guscott and Bruce Krentzman try to figure their weekly budget.

Mrs. Kurtz explains to Linda Smith and Sandy Miller the fundamental steps in operating the mimeograph machine.

CBE and DE obtain jobs with many business firms

CBE and DE ... having to attend zero period ... learning how to properly operate business machines ... getting to go to a "swank" restaurant as a reward for accomplishment ... coming to school in the morning and working in the afternoon ... meeting and getting along with all types of people in the business world ... looking for and holding down jobs ... striving for perfection in preparation for the district and state contests ... being one of the chosen few that have made the grade ... finding out that scholarship and sincere desire are needed to succeed with people in general.

CBE STUDENTS, Bottom Row: H. Quigley, S. Dorsey, J. Finch, K. Corley, T. Woods, D. Calhoun, S. Miller, A. Lacagnina, T. Hall. Top Row: M. Lilly, D. Dawson, S. Painter, J. Vardy, H. Jensen, P. Watson, S. McGee, P. Shellenbarger, M. Kessler, C. Mahoney.

Patti Jacobacci is absorbed in a conversation at a DCT breakfast.

DCT provides training in various profitable careers

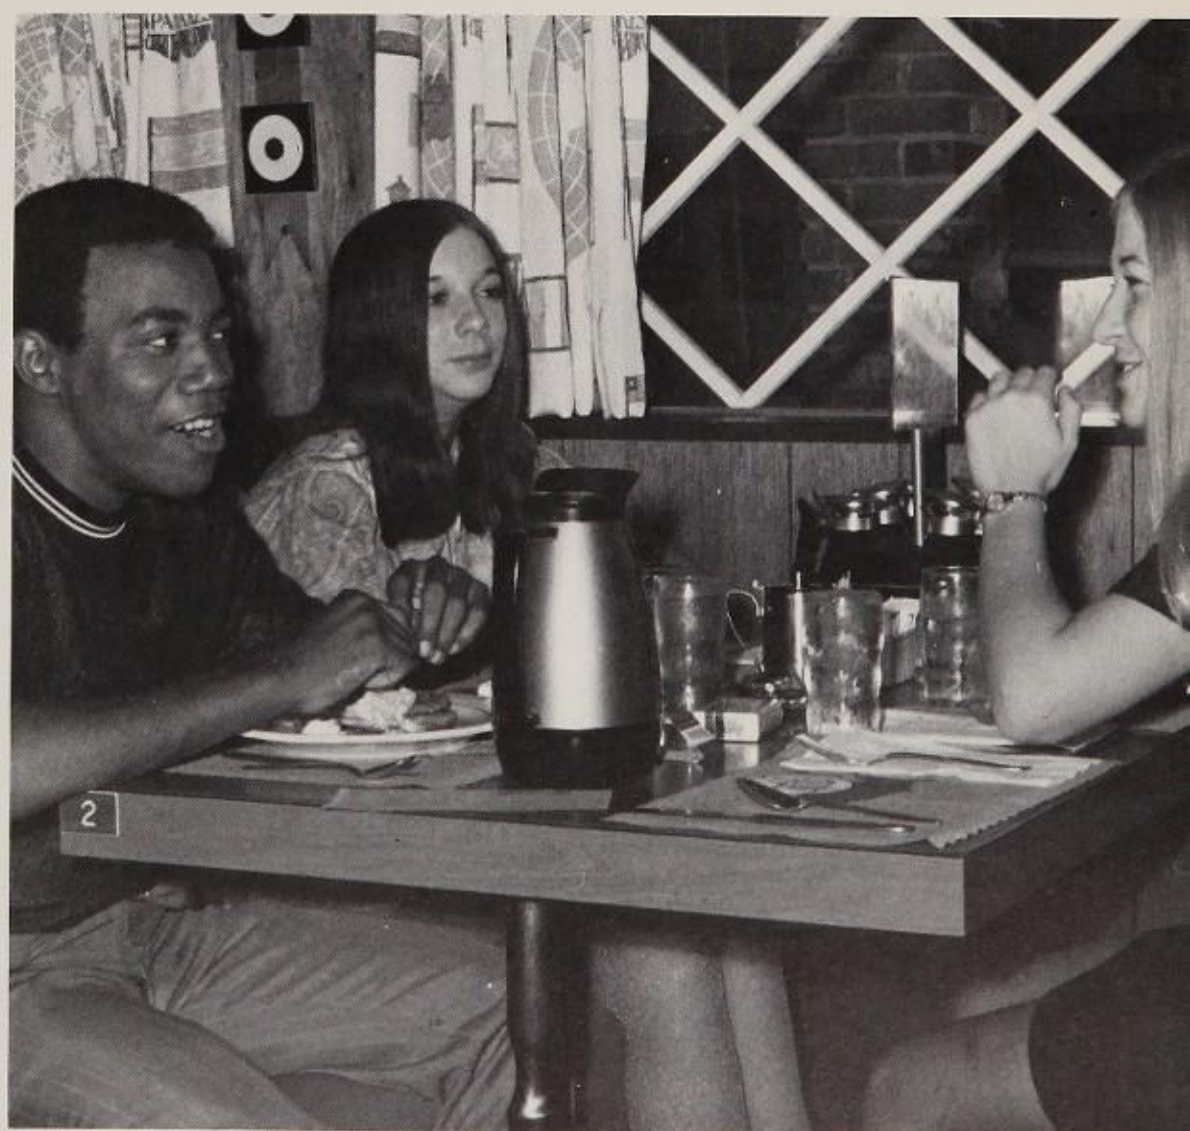

DCT ... promoting businesses ... helping the Knight Writer staff put out a student activities calendar ... waking with the dawn to make zero period ... working with the little giant, Mr. Sacino ... learning all there is to know about business ... winning awards for a job well done ... striving to out do the CRE students ... splitting the school day with a business day ... doing more than their part to become an asset to the school ... studying the ins and outs of business law ... wanting to do a little bit better than what is expected ... maturing in the competitive world outside the school.

Chester Scherf, V. Pres.;
Pat McBride, Club Rep.;
Mary Ebey, Treas.; Steve
Meadows, Pres.

Mr. Sacino relates how records are used to promote and aid business.

Jesse Patty brightens up the breakfast table with humorous incidents.

Excalibur artists animate special memories of year

ANNUAL ... beginning work the previous spring ... learning the simple mechanics that aren't so simple ... trying to make varied and interesting layouts ... discovering you've used the wrong fitting sheet for captions ... counting headlines right the first time ... using the new light table to crop pictures ... losing and borrowing rulers and cropping wheels ... finding candid pictures that really look candid ... losing pictures the night before deadline ... squeezing in the freshman section at the last minute ... muffing the faculty pictures ... encouraging words from "O" and Barbara ... closing subscription drive joyously on time ... working on copy until all hours of the night ... reaching second deadline with just a few minor catastrophes ... mounting tensions and hopes of success ... recounting hard work, tears, smiles of past semesters ... creating more than a book—recreating a year ... Excalibur 1969.

CLASSES: Dee Forrler, Julie McLaren, Pat Crosby, Mary Button, editor; Bonnie Ho, Debbie Jordan.

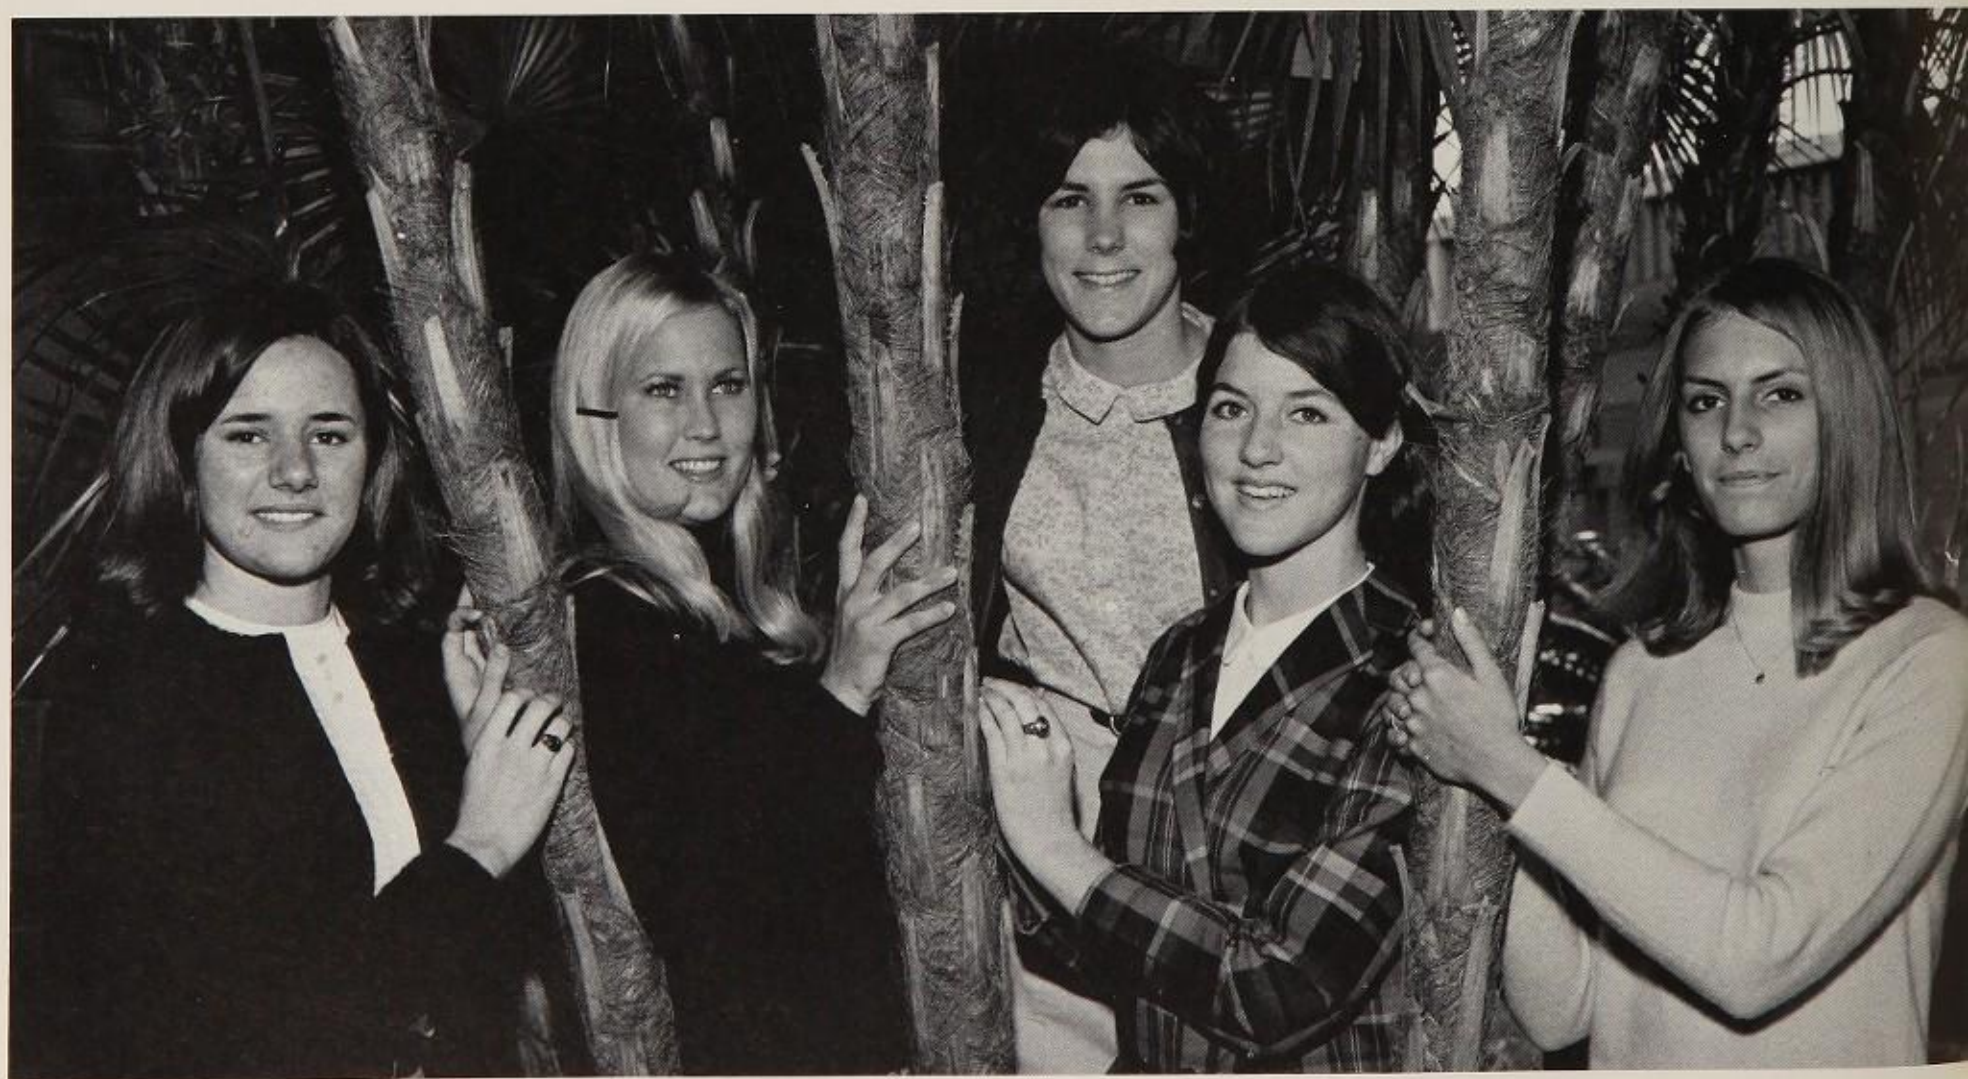

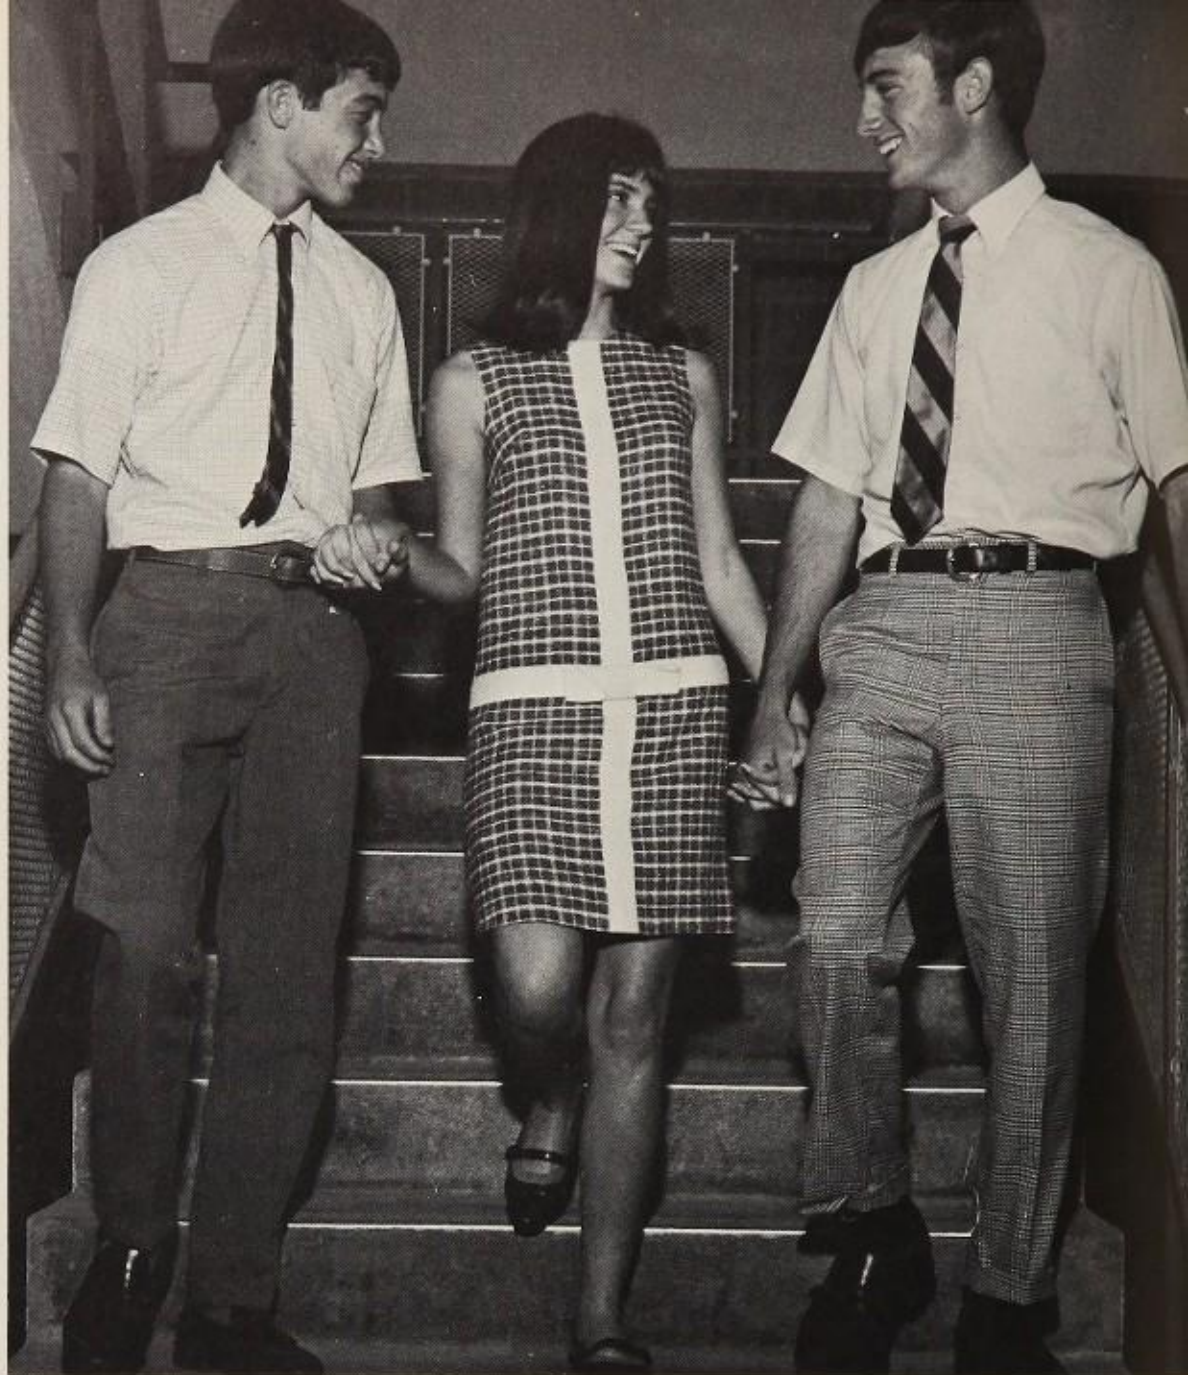

SPORTS: Doug Brill, Denny Spray, Earl Garland, editor; Robin McClure, Tim Tinius.

Nancy Tucker, scheduling editor; Debbie Cole, copy editor.

Recounting work, smiles,
and tears of staff's effort

CURRICULUM: Jim DeGenaro, editor; Kitten Moore, Johnny Beck.

ORGANIZATIONS: Jan McCartan, editor; Nancy King, Pat Fennel, Suzi Foster, Nancy Fuller.

Judy Shields, Business Manager; Candy Van Horn, Advertising Manager.

Pat Fennel worries over some problems she faces with the coming annual deadline.

FEATURES: Brenda Reddell, Nancy Russo, editor; Aileen O'Dell, Marsha Warner.

Darrel Howton scoring on 2 yard plunge ... Tigers fighting back ... scoring on 3 yard run ... extra point being blocked, 16-13 Knights ... Tigers throwing desperation passes ... Buzzy Heinrich intercepting to secure Robinson's first victory.

Kenny Robbins sets up deciding touchdown against Middleton at Phillips Field as desperate Tiger players move in.

Richard Slater enjoys a well-earned drink on the sidelines following the Knights' first victory over Middleton High.

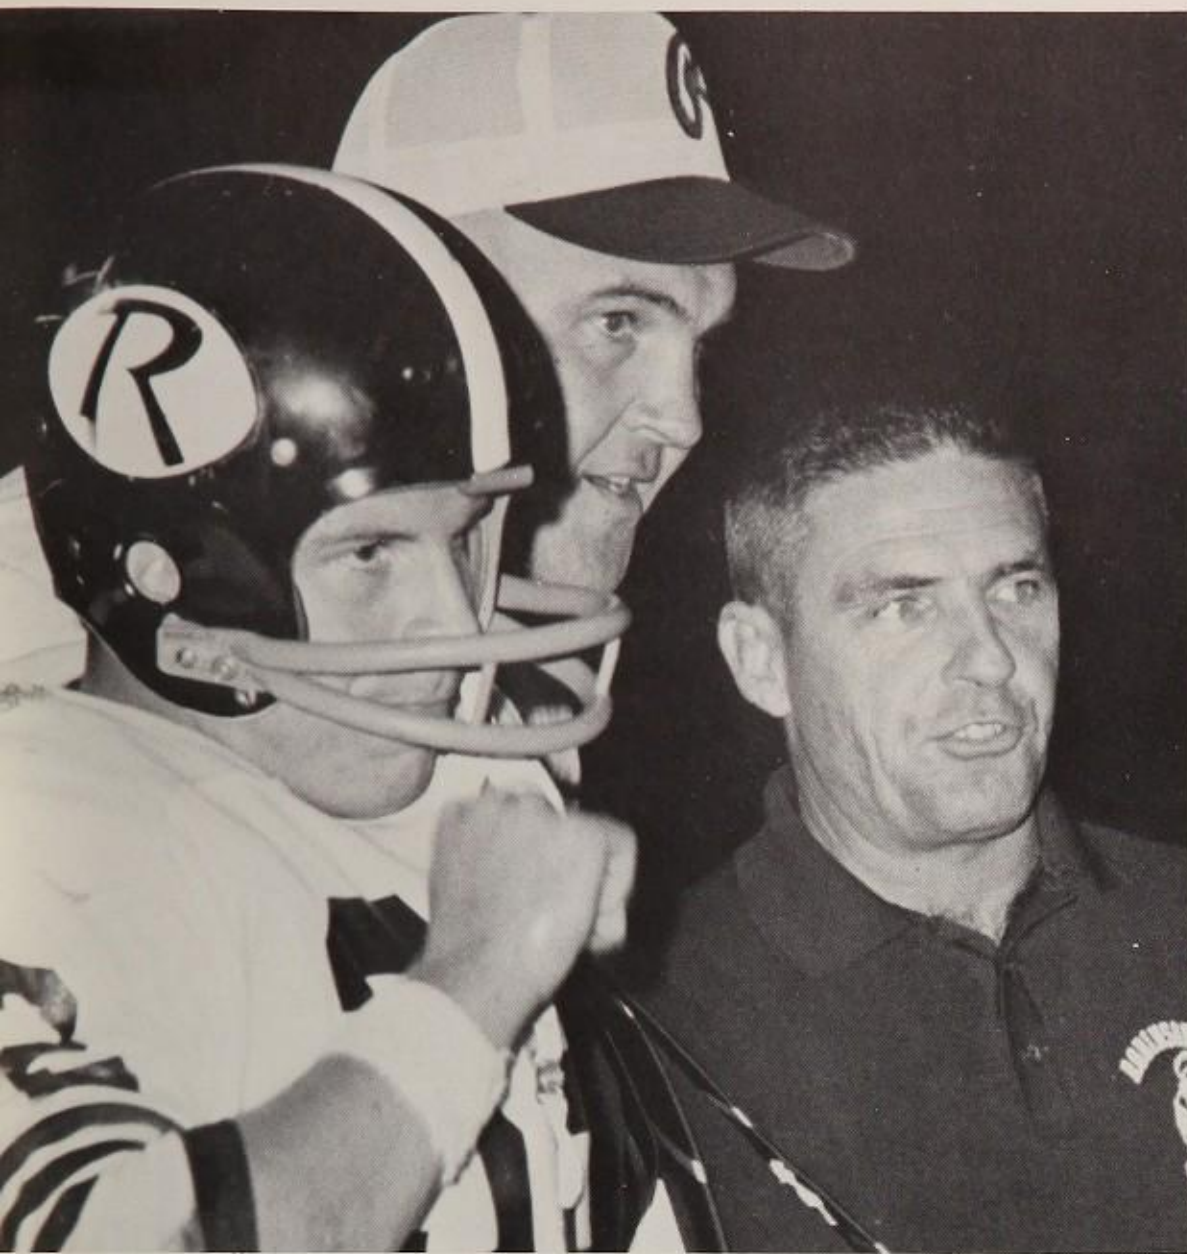

Gary Ashworth ensnares a Howton aerial and hoaxes a would-be tackler by turning in for a long yardage gain.

State title hopes dashed; Brandon bops RHS, 22-0

BRANDON ... Knights' wrath being unleashed by painted doors ... Knights threatening first on a 60 yard Howton-to-LaGrande aerial ... RHS losing ball on downs ... Brandon fighting back with a 55 yard pass completion ... Eagles scoring first ... Robinson offense bogging down ... halftime beginning with Eagles leading, 6-0 ... Starlets and majorettes whooping it up in a western-type show ... Knights returning to field with rejuvenated spirits ... offenses battling until Eagles recover fumble on RHS 15 yard line ... Brandon scoring again ... Knights punting ball to Eagles ... Brandon fighting to RHS 16 yard line ... stout defense forcing Eagles to field goal ... RHS offense losing momentum ... Eagles scoring last on another Robinson fumble, dashing State title hopes, 22-0.

Ken Robbins scampers around end, eluding a possible tackler, as big Richard Slater and Larry Thomas lead interference.

Coaches Mahin and Durnin confer with Bill
Berkes during Plant game.

Knights cling to pride as Plant Hi routs to victory

PLANT ... Plant kids getting put down at Robinson's bonfire ... Knights in white jerseys invading Panther Stadium with high spirits ... RHS defense shaky in first half ... Chick Nunez passing to halfback Bill Hasselo in first quarter for Plant's only touchdown ... Larry Whitman intercepting pass to help spark Knights ... Panther end, Bob Lewis, kicking his second field goal of the season in second quarter ... Darrel Howton passing to Steve Moore for 14 yard gainer ... Robinson backs finding the going rough and failing to score ... 10-0 at halftime ... Knights defense toughening up in second half, holding Panthers scoreless ... Bill Kelly blocking Plant punt in a dramatic effort ... Bill Berkes ripping in fourth quarter, bringing crowd to their feet ... Knights being defeated 10-0 but not in spirit and pride.

Darrel Howton gets good protection as he unleashes
a long pass.

Walt Atkinson's jump shot is good for two points despite the efforts of a Panther player in the Knights' victory over Plant.

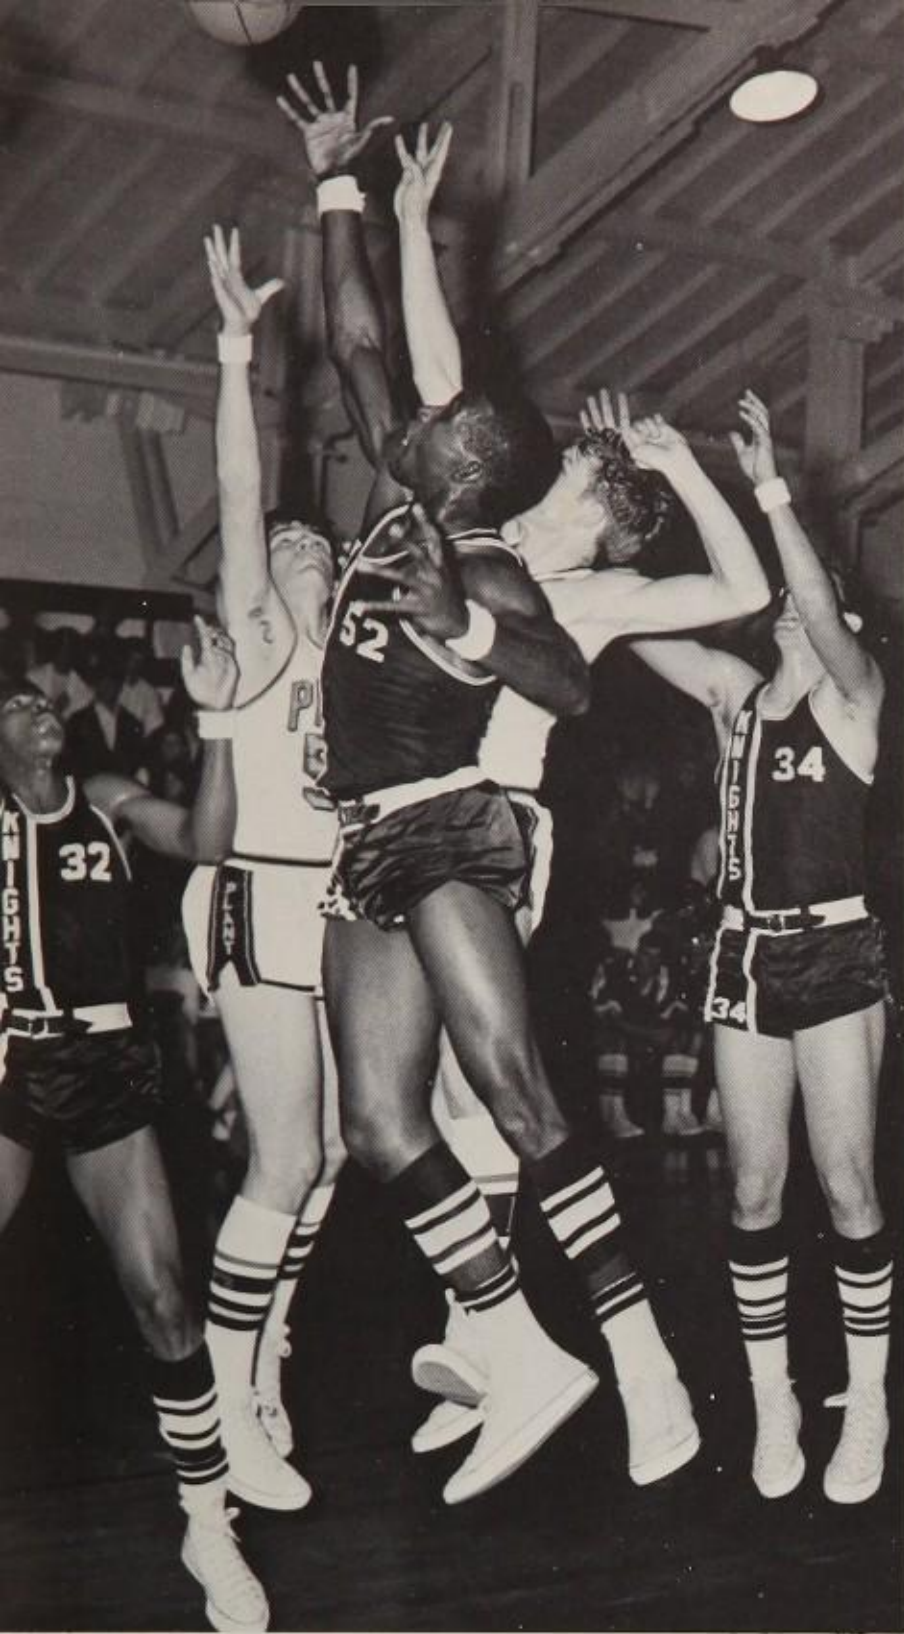

Senior Knight Larry Thomas tips the ball to start the second half of the Leto game.

Taking a foul shot is just one of the many facets of a basketball game, and Walt Atkinson took quite a few during the season.

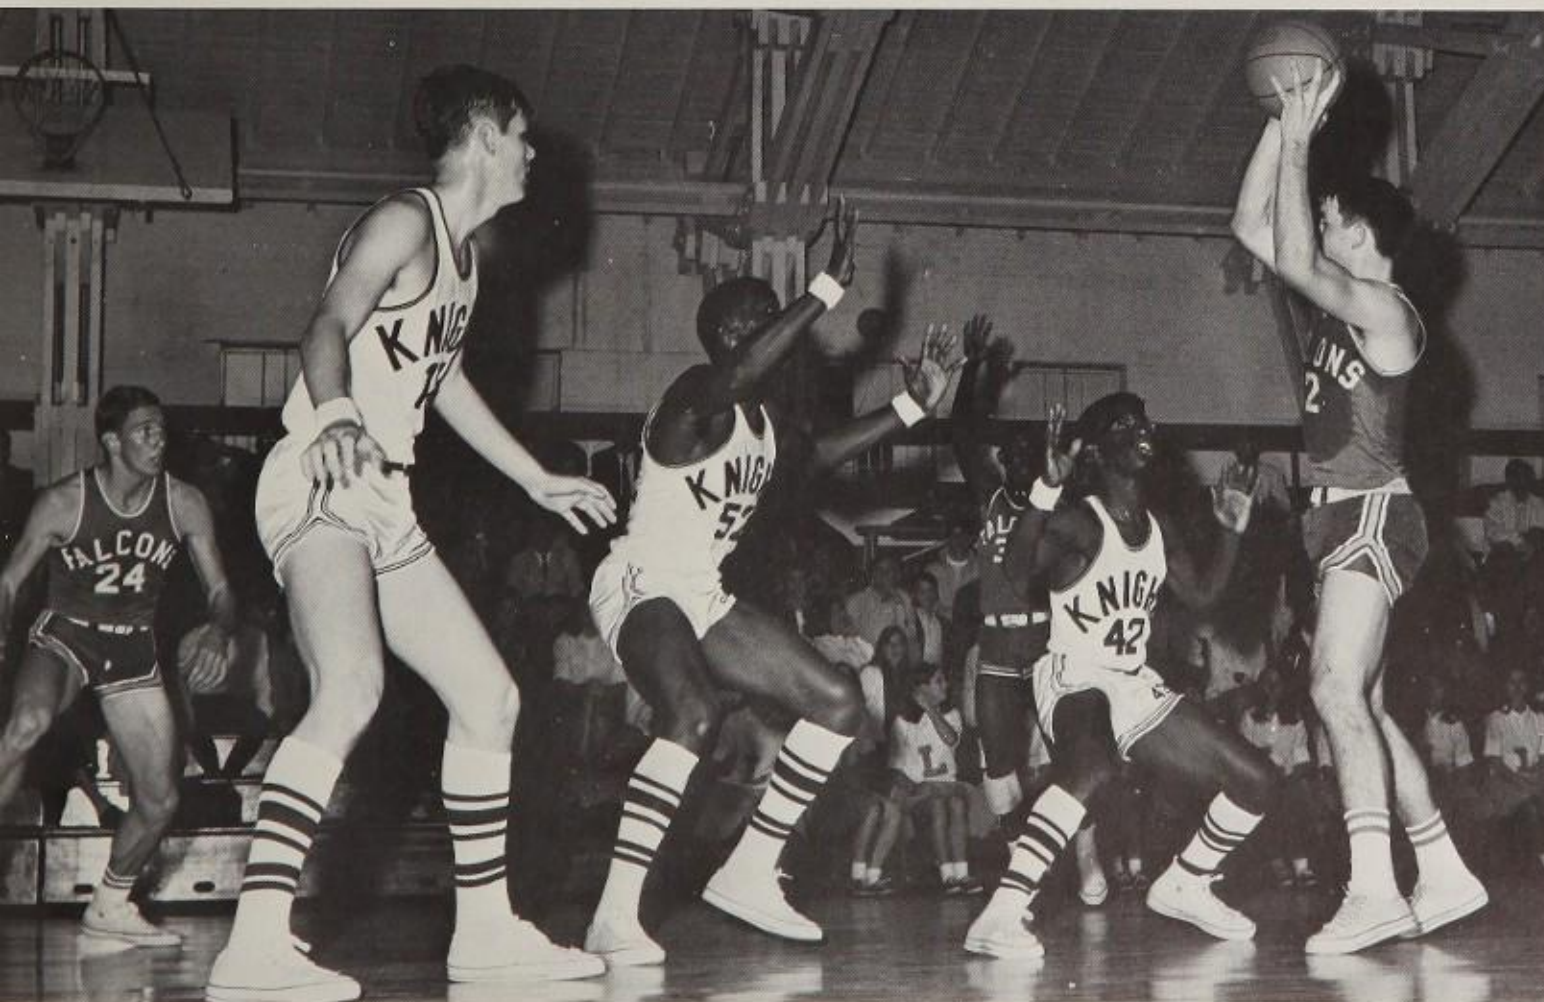

Larry Thomas receives Gordon Dawson's pass to go on for two points in the Robinson, Chamberlain board clash.

Center Larry Thomas, with the help of Walt Atkinson, tries for the rebound in the Knights' victory over PHS.

The duties of the managers, Kenny King and Bill Alvis, are many, including the distribution of uniforms.

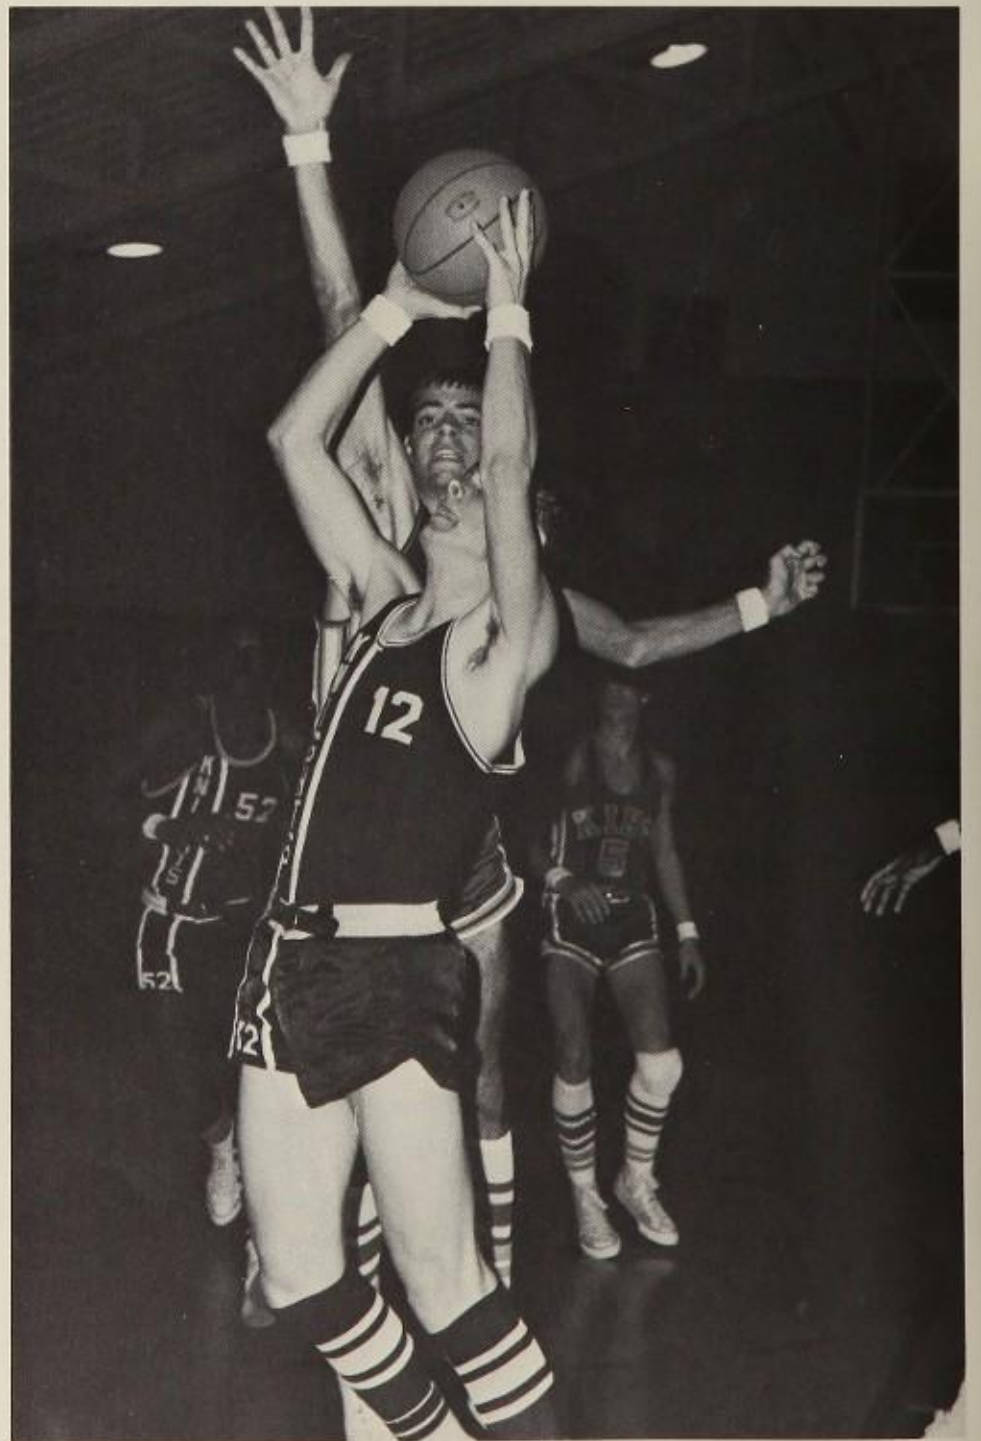

The rugged defense of the Knights is shown by Gordon Dawson, Larry Thomas, and Darnell Cannon against the Falcons of Leto High.

After rebounding from Leto, Darnell Cannon moves the ball slowly to give the Knights time to set up offensively in the RHS victory.

Rebounding can be rough, as Gordon Dawson, Morris La-Grand, and Larry Thomas prove as the Knights struggle but are defeated by Big Red.

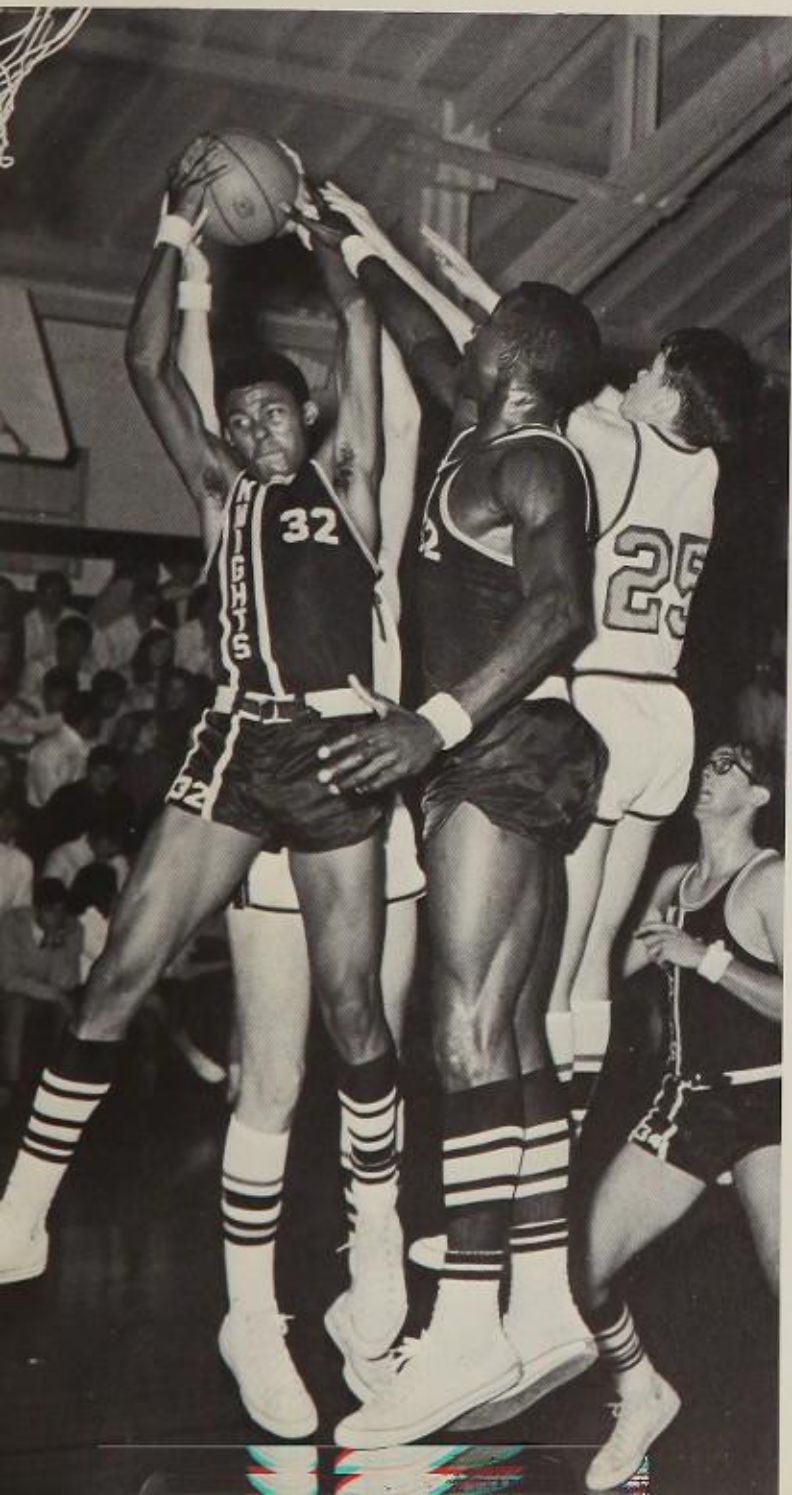

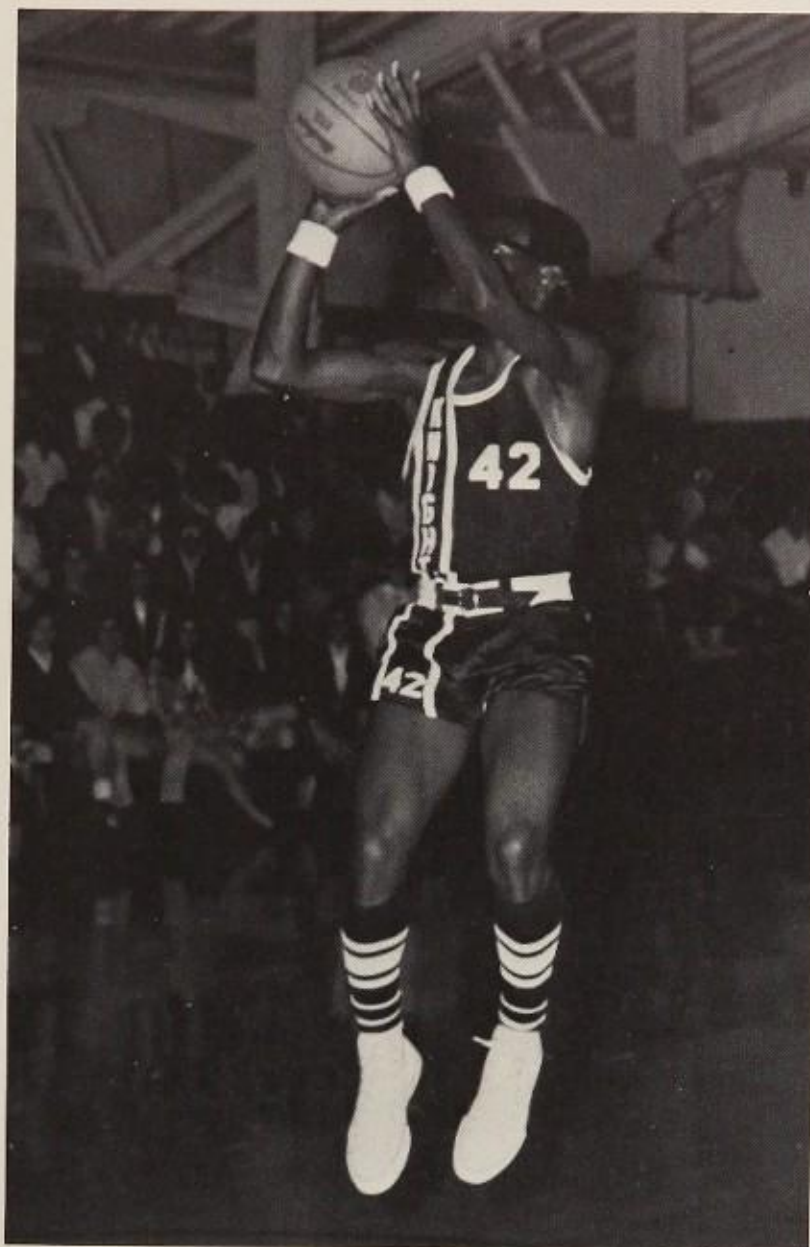

Gordon Dawson's attempt for a jump shot is foiled by a King defender as Robinson hand the King High Lions a close loss, 41-39.

Forward Walt Atkinson tries for two against the Hillsborough Terriers as Morris La-Grand watches to make sure nothing goes wrong.

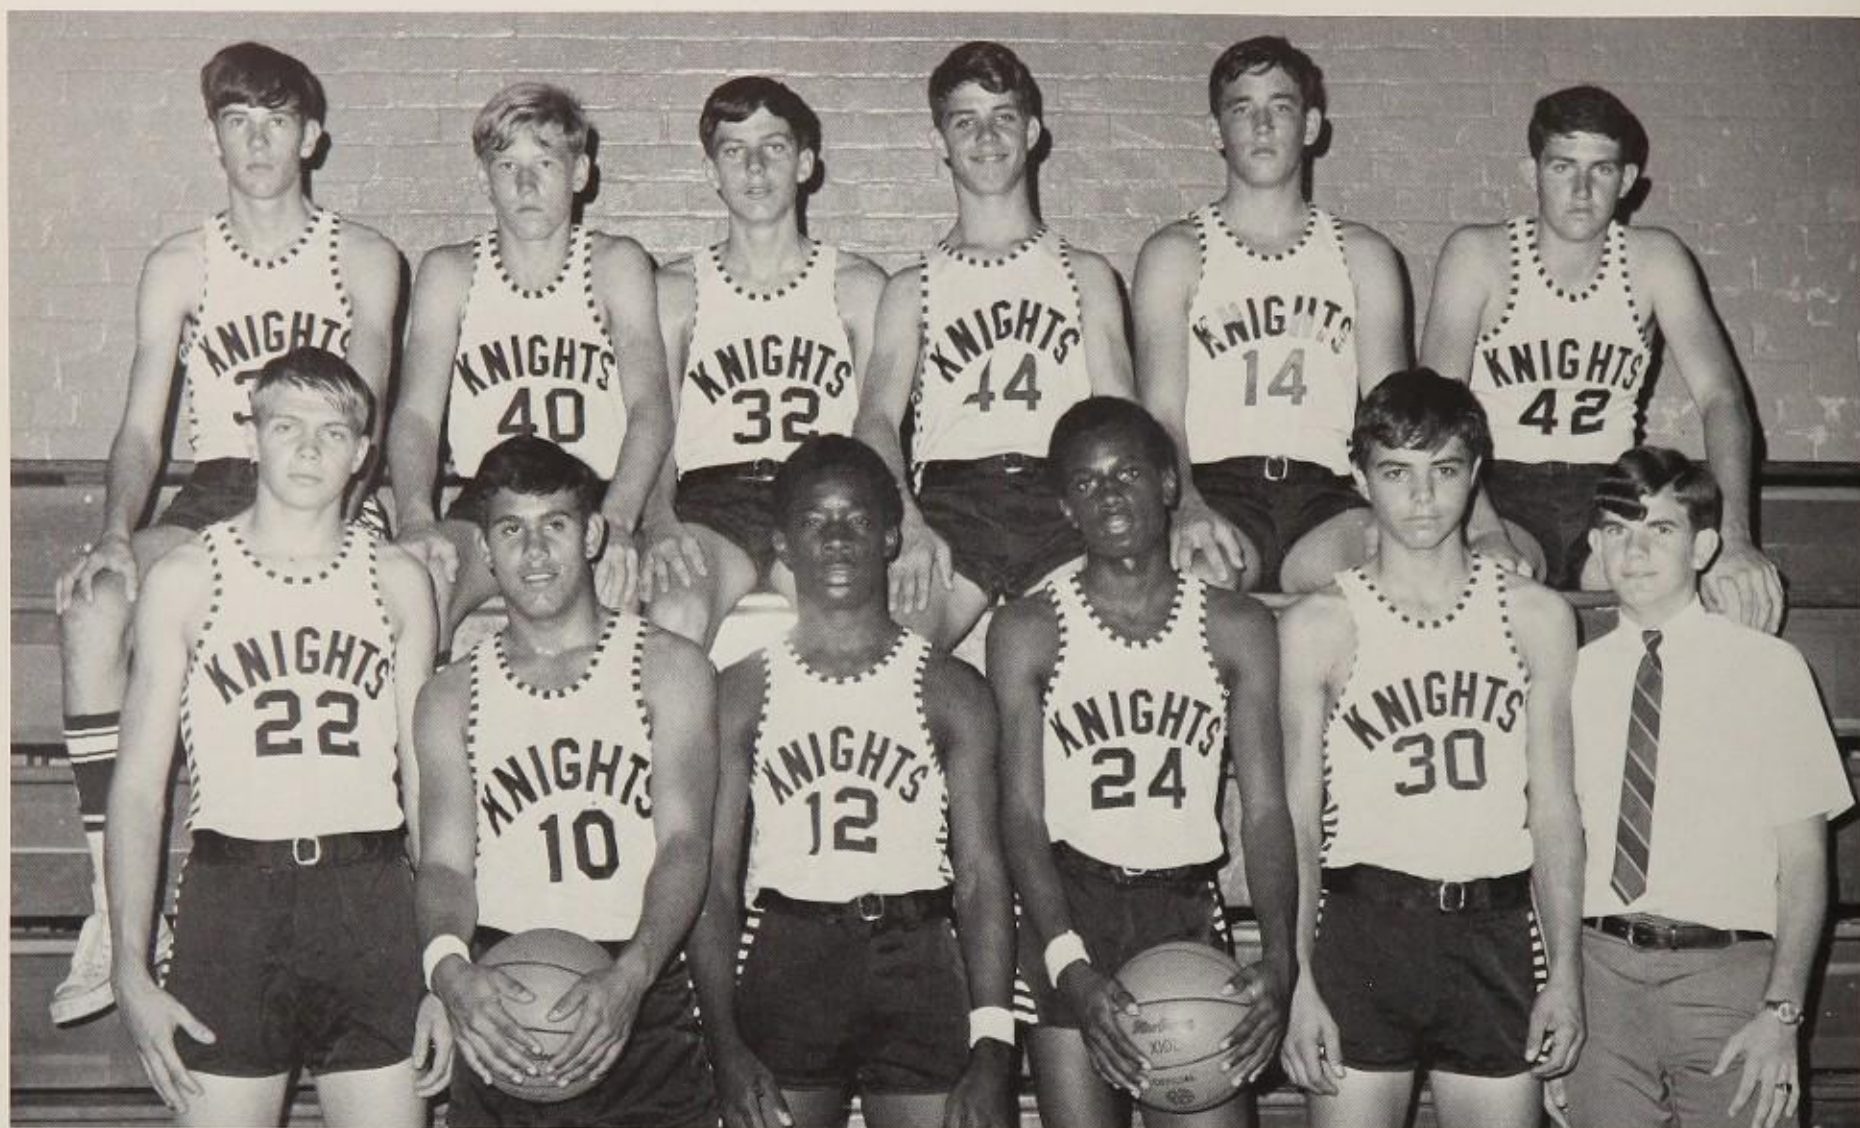

Guard Darnell Cannon leaps high off the hardwood for a two point keeper in the tough, close RHS-PHS clash which RHS won.

Walt Atkinson, forward, and Larry Thomas, center, struggle to keep the ball in the hands of the Knights in the Plant game.

Knight nine gain success in trying for state champs

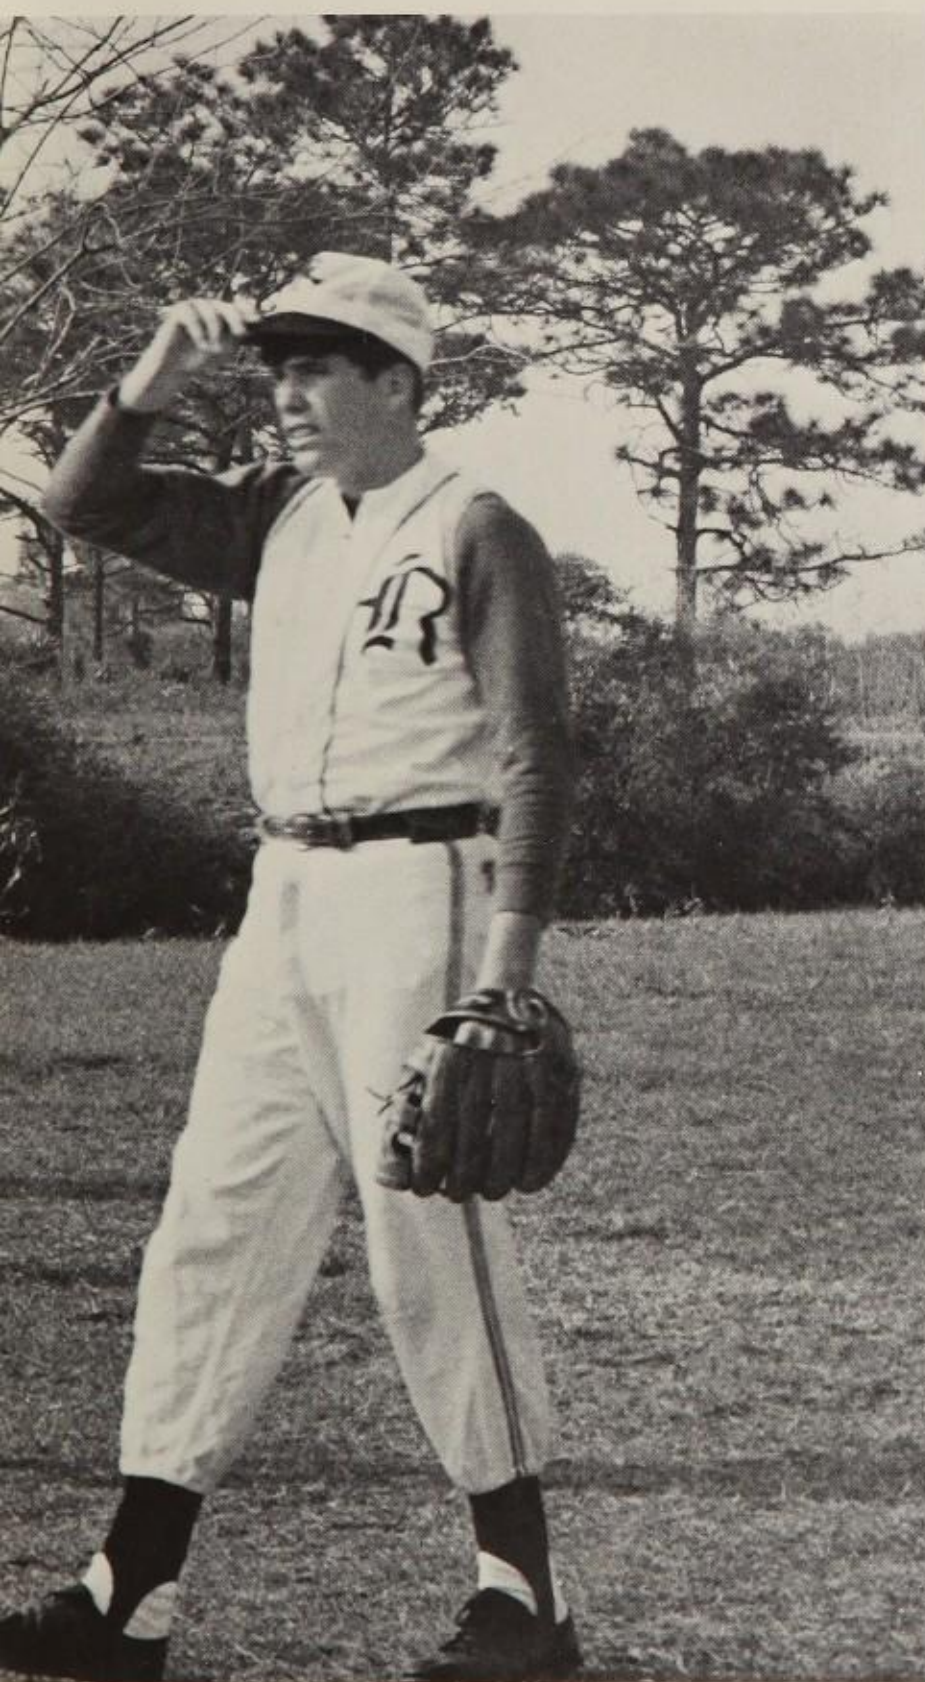

BASEBALL . . . starting off in the spring with necessary and needed practice . . . Coach Garcia bringing back a young team, full of hopes for success and early victories . . . working on strengthening infield skills and batting averages . . . perfecting that ever so important double play . . . being a strong and respected contender for the Western Conference Championship . . . scarcity of returning senior lettermen hampering team, but finding themselves in early games . . . juniors and sophomores adding depth and gaining experience through every practice . . . Alan Salmon, Ken Robbins, and Richard Veitz taking on main pitching chores with confidence and ability . . . Bill Berkes, Mike White, and Gordon Dawson providing chief power with high batting averages . . . meeting the challenges and succeeding with a winning season to make it all seem worthwhile.

Returning star, Alan Salmon exhibits perfect pitching form for the final out to finish up the ninth inning.

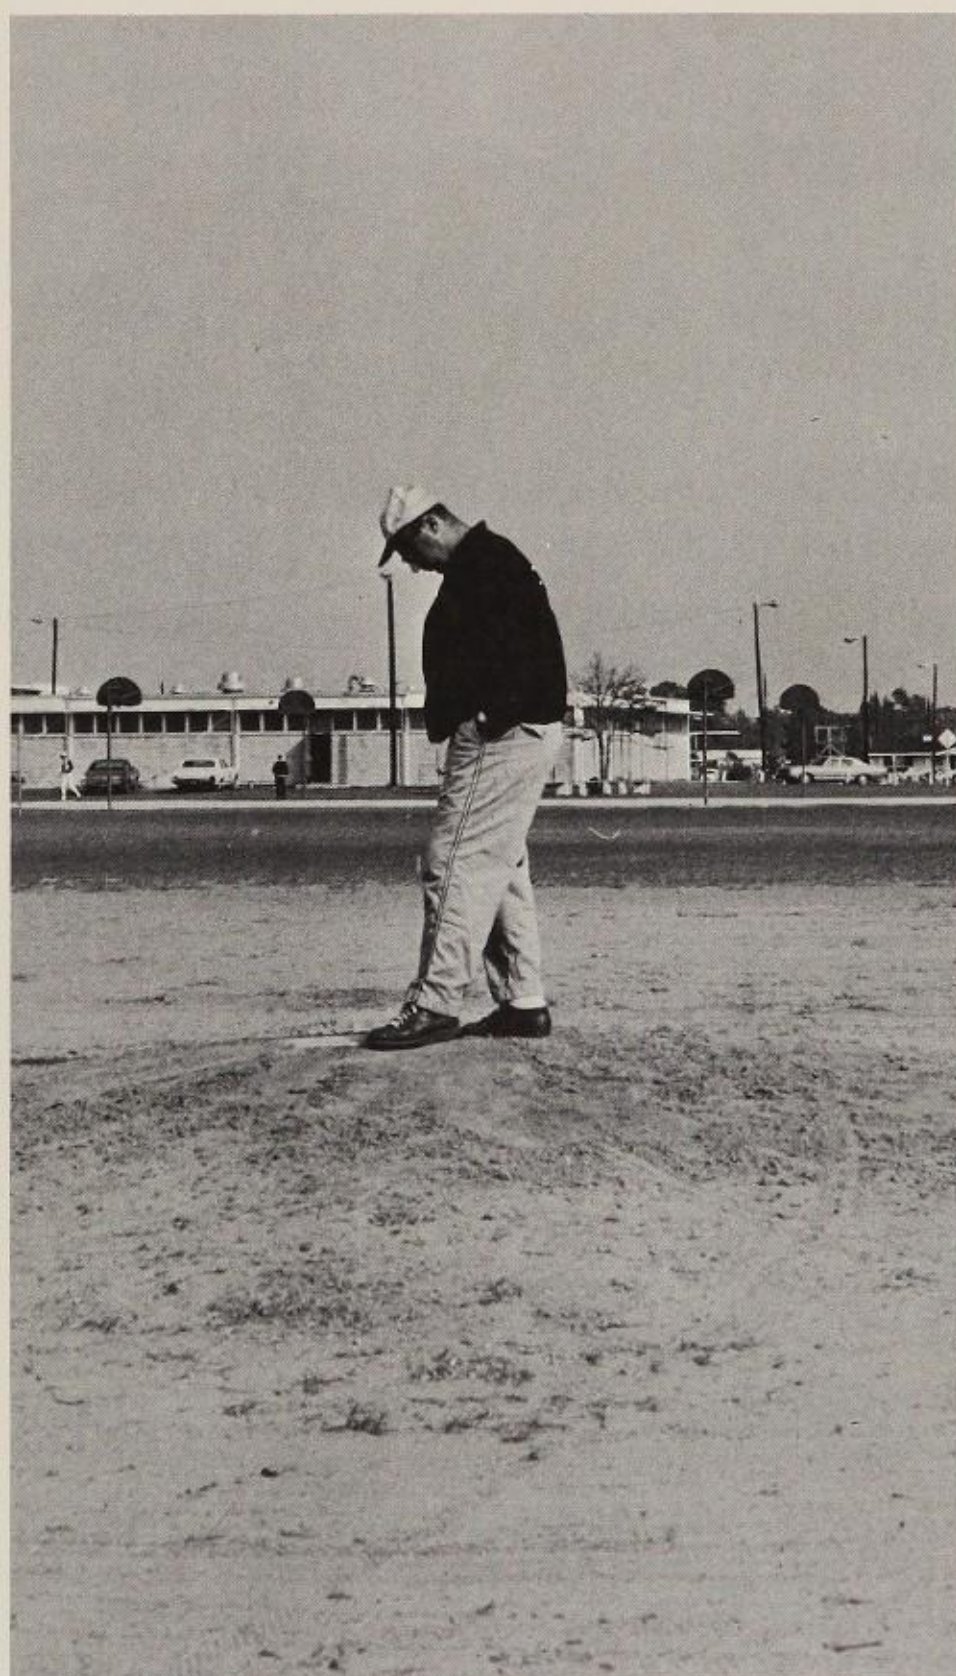

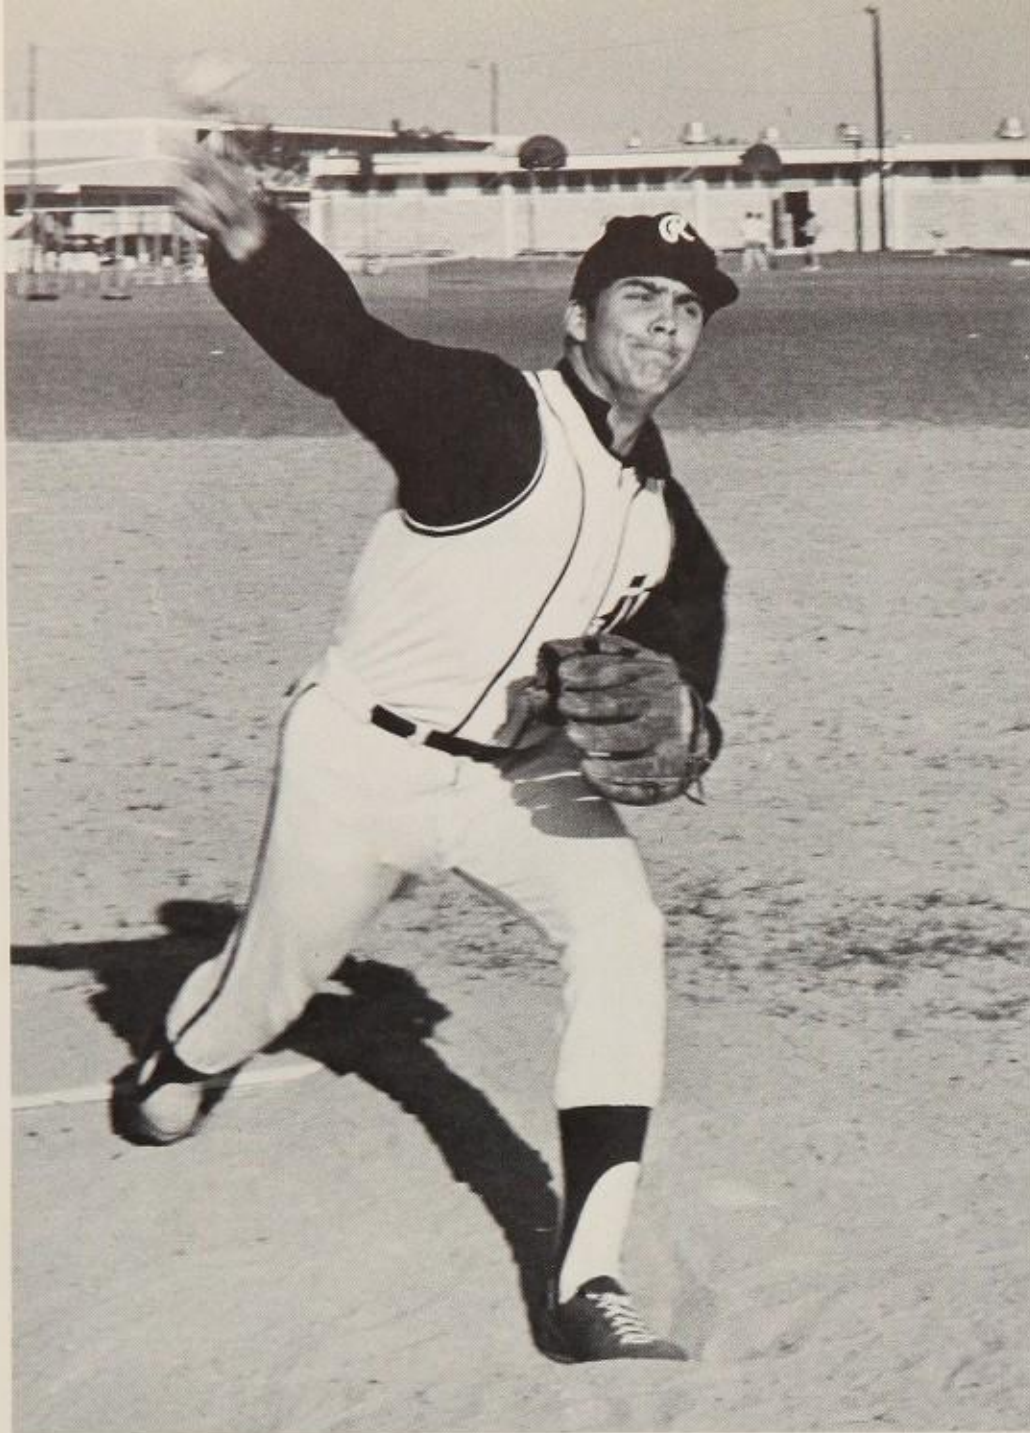

Bill Berkes scoops up a sizzling grounder, knowing he has a long throw to first base for the decisive out.

Junior Richard Veitz adjusts his baseball cap to shade out the hot sun during pregame warm-ups.

A pensive and thoughtful Coach Garcia contemplates after a long trying afternoon of trial and error baseball.

Jimmy Griffin stretches for the throw from second to first base to complete a double play in the Brandon game.

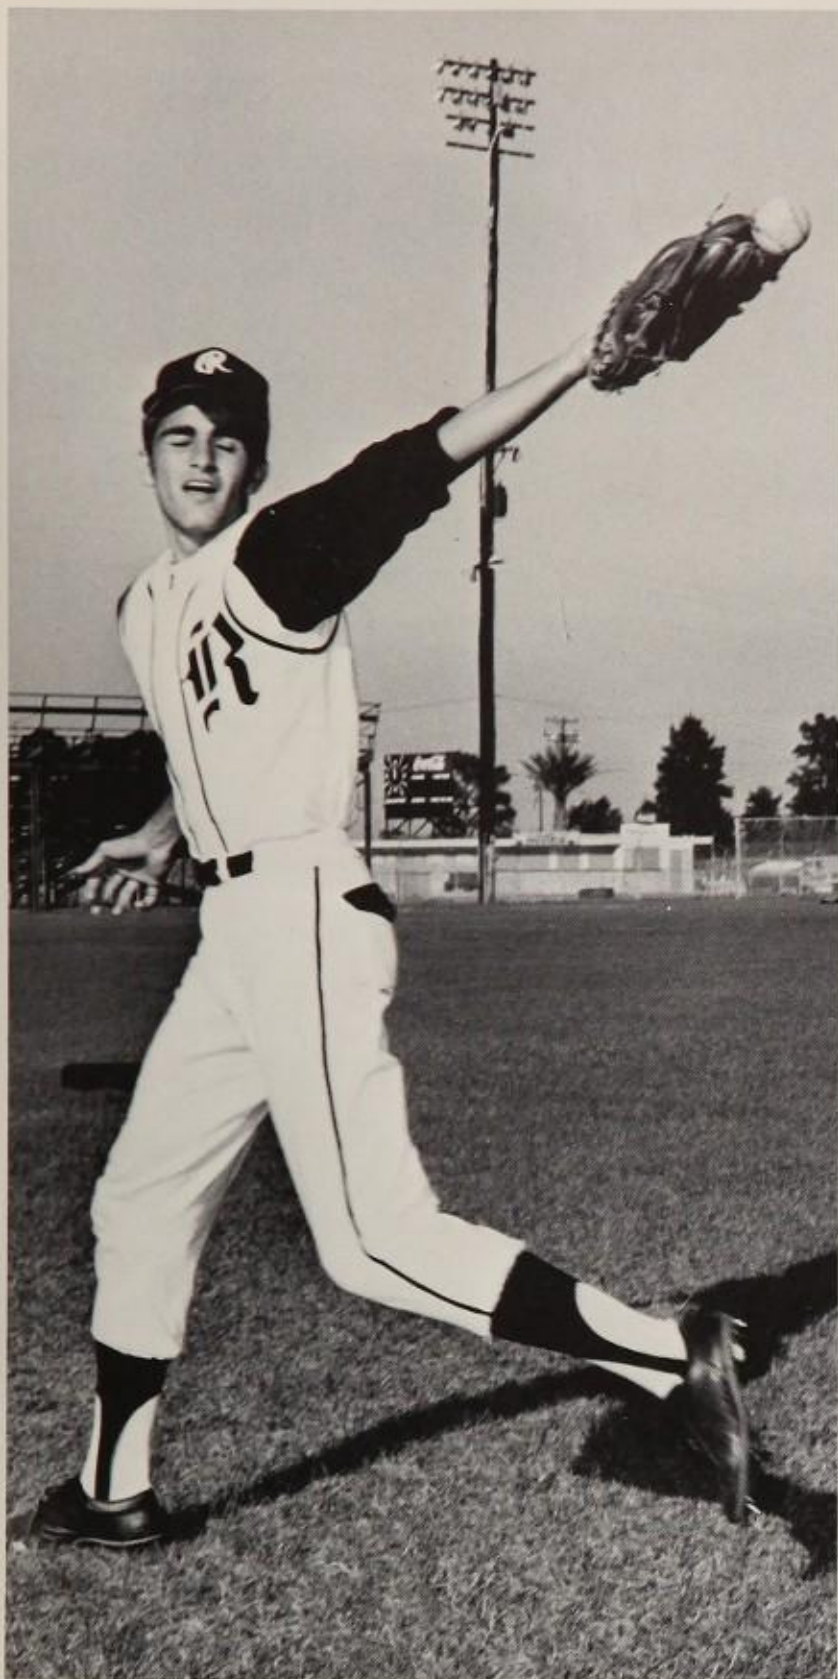

Kenny Robbins evades an attempt to break up a double play quickly.

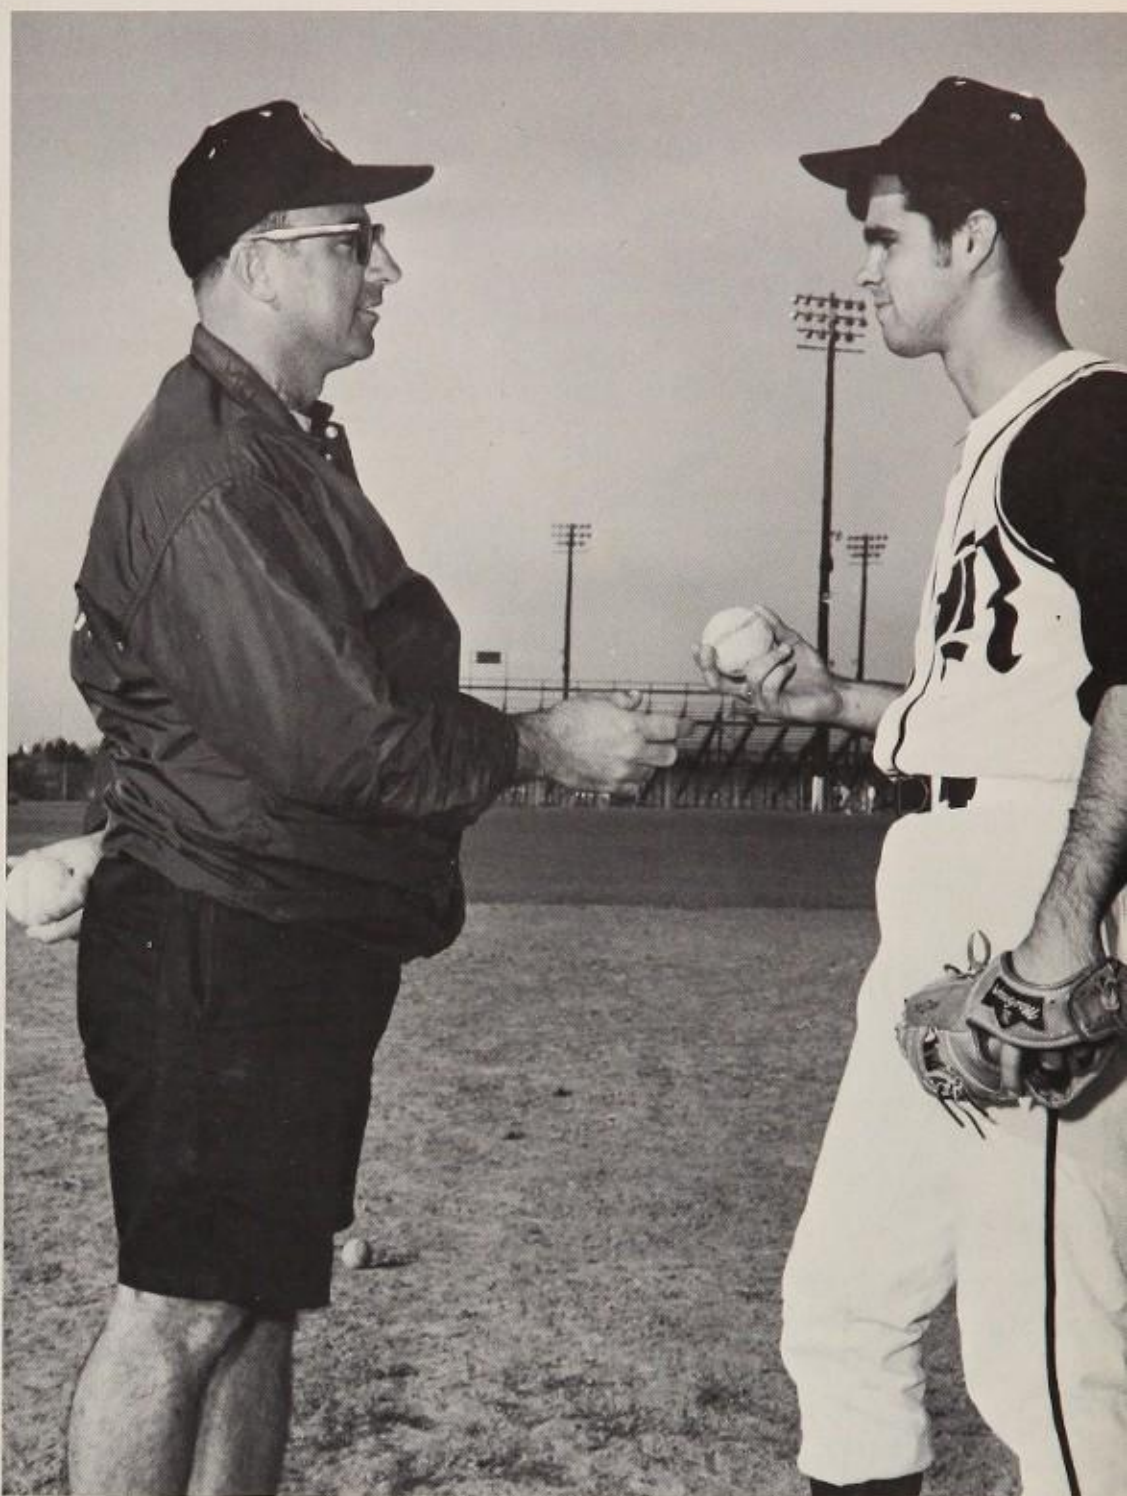

Senior slugger Bill Berkes connects for the game-winning single.

A good outfielder is always on the lookout for a pop fly, and Ronnie Mills stretches for one during the game against the Panthers.

After three years of playing baseball for the Knights, pitcher Alan Salmon finds that the advice of Coach Lou Garcia is helpful.

"I got you," grins senior Mike White after stopping a would-be run by Doug Clark during one of the long and tiring afternoon practices.

Tankers dive to victories in challenging '69 season

SWIMMING ... coaches adding zest to new teams ... starting practice in early December ... gaining important needed practice on their own ... running to help strengthen leg muscles ... freezing Florida weather ... concentrating on improving strokes and speed ... practicing week after week to obtain important needed points ... diving playing an important role in compiling extra points ... RHS threatening Plant and Jesuit ... good sportsmanship playing an important role in every meet ... worrying nervously about up-coming events ... standing tall on the starting blocks ... wondering if you will win or lose ... hearing the loud burst of the starting gun ... diving into the cool water ... trying harder and harder ... wanting so much to win ... using all your strength to give you that last thrust forward ... earning a distinguished place for Robinson.

Tom Fuschini practices an inward dive to obtain necessary perfection.

Jan McCartan lunges into the cool water to earn a place for Robinson.

Returning letterman, Ken Spears, uses all his skill and knowledge of golf to get out of a dreaded sand trap.

Golfers struggle for style to outclass stubborn foes

GOLF ... inexperience and lack of participants hampering RHS golf team ... sandtraps, water holes, and unpleasant weather never seeming to bother the young yet always composed team ... Coach Aplin, as is his tradition, guiding his golfers to success and triumph ... returning lettermen, Ken Spears and Layne Ponder, leading and assisting teammates in keen competition with stubborn opponents ... practicing and participating in golf matches at Macdill Air Force Base golf course ... upholding the pride and dignity known to be Robinson's.

W. Cesky, L. Ponder, Coach Aplin, J. Rausch, I. McGuire.

Wayne Cesky follows through with smart style, optimistically hoping for that once in a lifetime shot, a hole in one.

Bottom Row: B. Campbell, P. Carastro, R. Ingram, L. Denney, L. Cook, N. Kidwell.
Second Row: R. Zuccato, M. Keyser, T. Facciponti, K. Hamilton, C. Singleton.
Top Row: R. Satterwhite, B. DuBose, J. Musa, D. Satterwhite, R. Slater, R. Cloud, Coach Flaherty.

Wrestlers gain reputation in untried sports venture

WRESTLING ... beginning a new and unique sport at Robinson ... Mike Gosset, Gary Ashworth and Richard Slater leading the Knight's strongmen to victory on the mats ... practicing long and hard hours at the Tampa University Gym ... becoming familiar with the strange and difficult techniques of wrestling ... contending for points and experience against stern competitors ... struggling for the final and decisive pin ... wanting to earn a name for themselves and accomplishing it with honor ... accepting the responsibility and gaining a reputation that befits Robinson.

Gary Ashworth displays dogged determination and wrestling skill, as he strains for a take down on Richard Wilson.

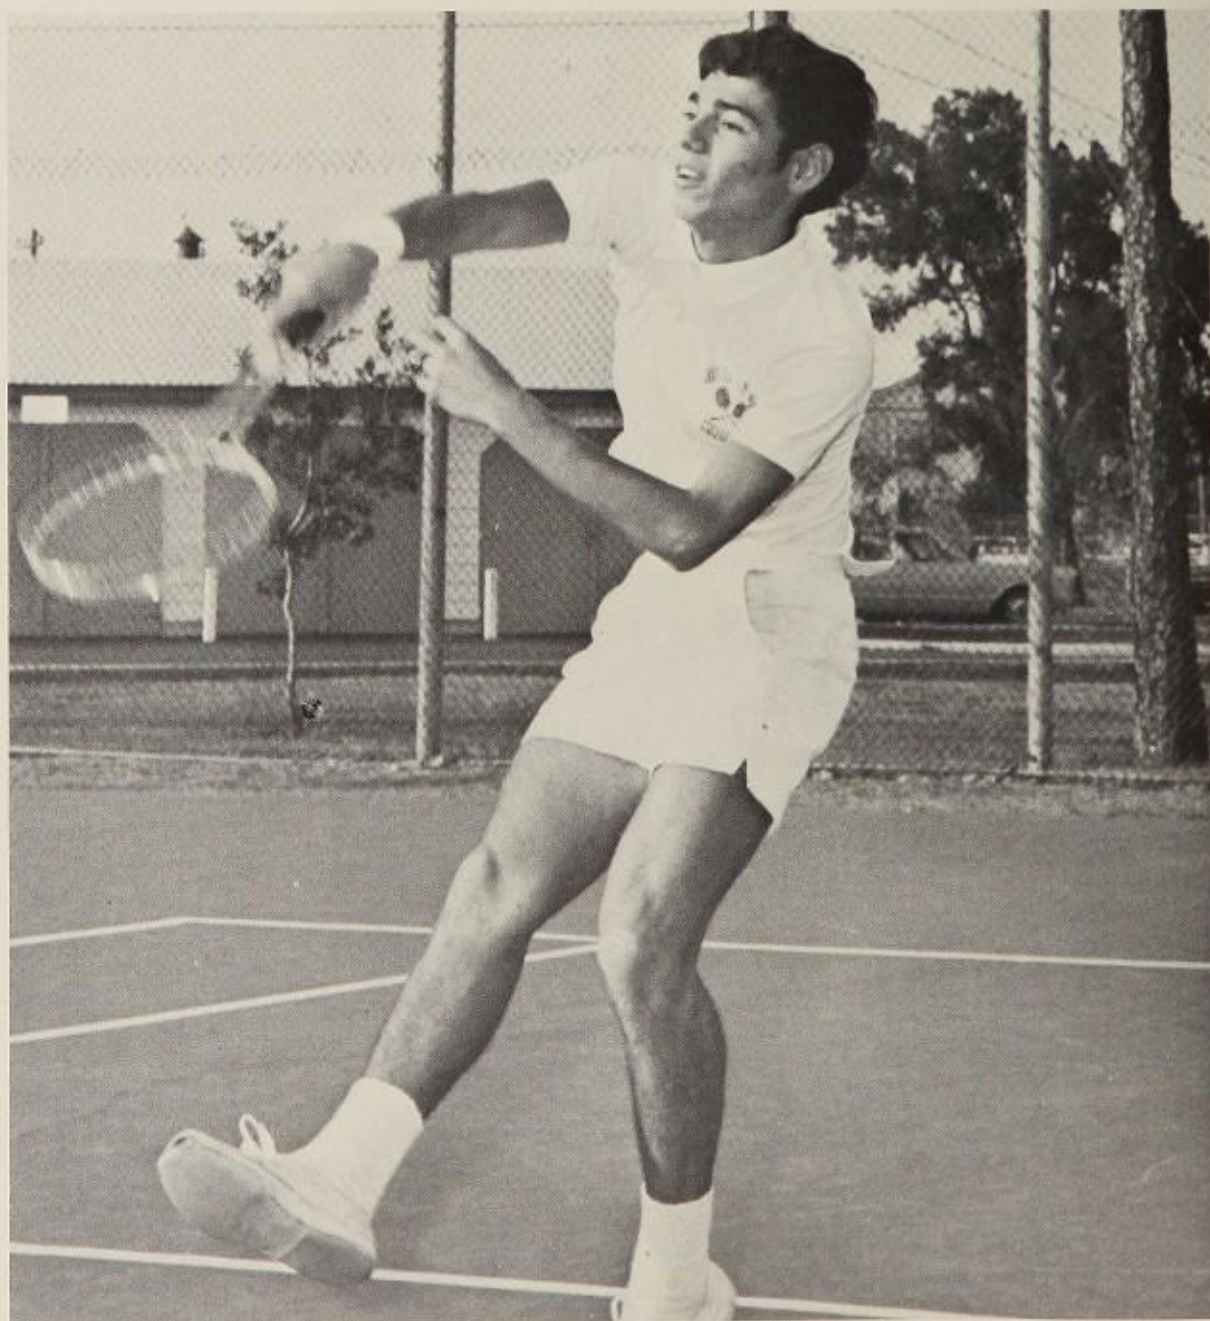

Mike Gosset watches over wrestling practice, while Bill DuBose and Don Satterwhite grapple for the desired pin.

Bottom Row: G. Durland, K. Krouse, C. Habecker, S. Craig. Top Row: M. Nickerson, B. Ray, B. Algeo, K. Morris, N. Kemper.

Charlie Nunez slams a lob shot at his adversary's feet for game-set point in a doubles match in a group final.

Kris Krouse vigilantly protects the net against any lob shots or slams in a conference doubles contention.

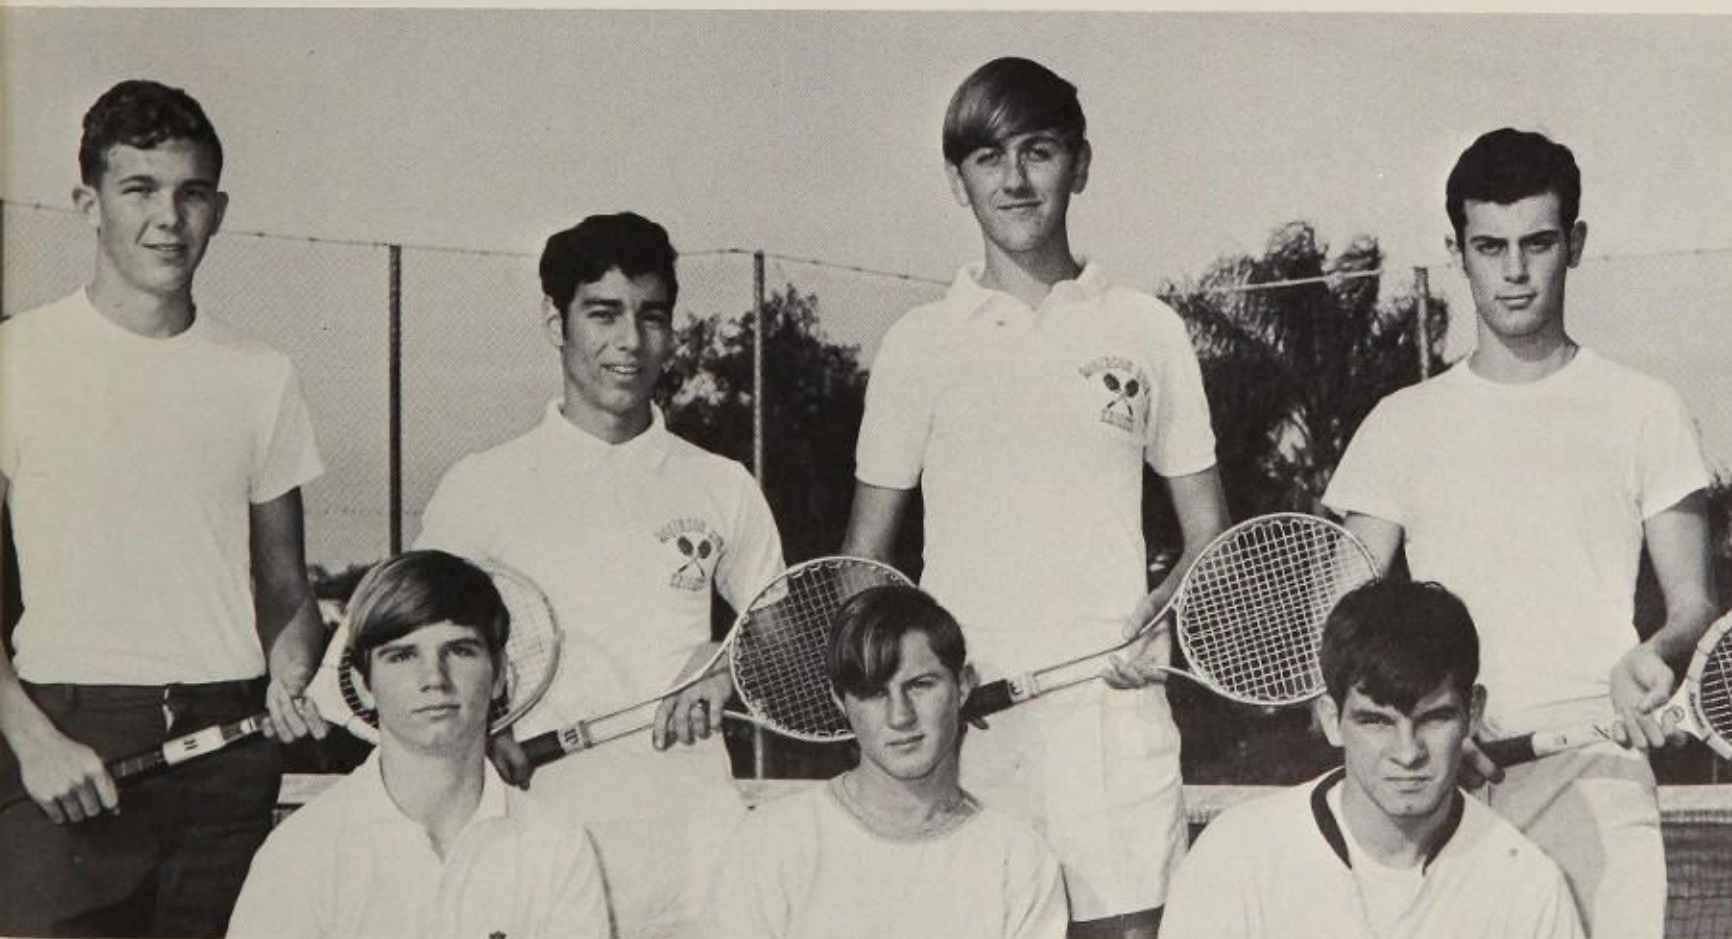

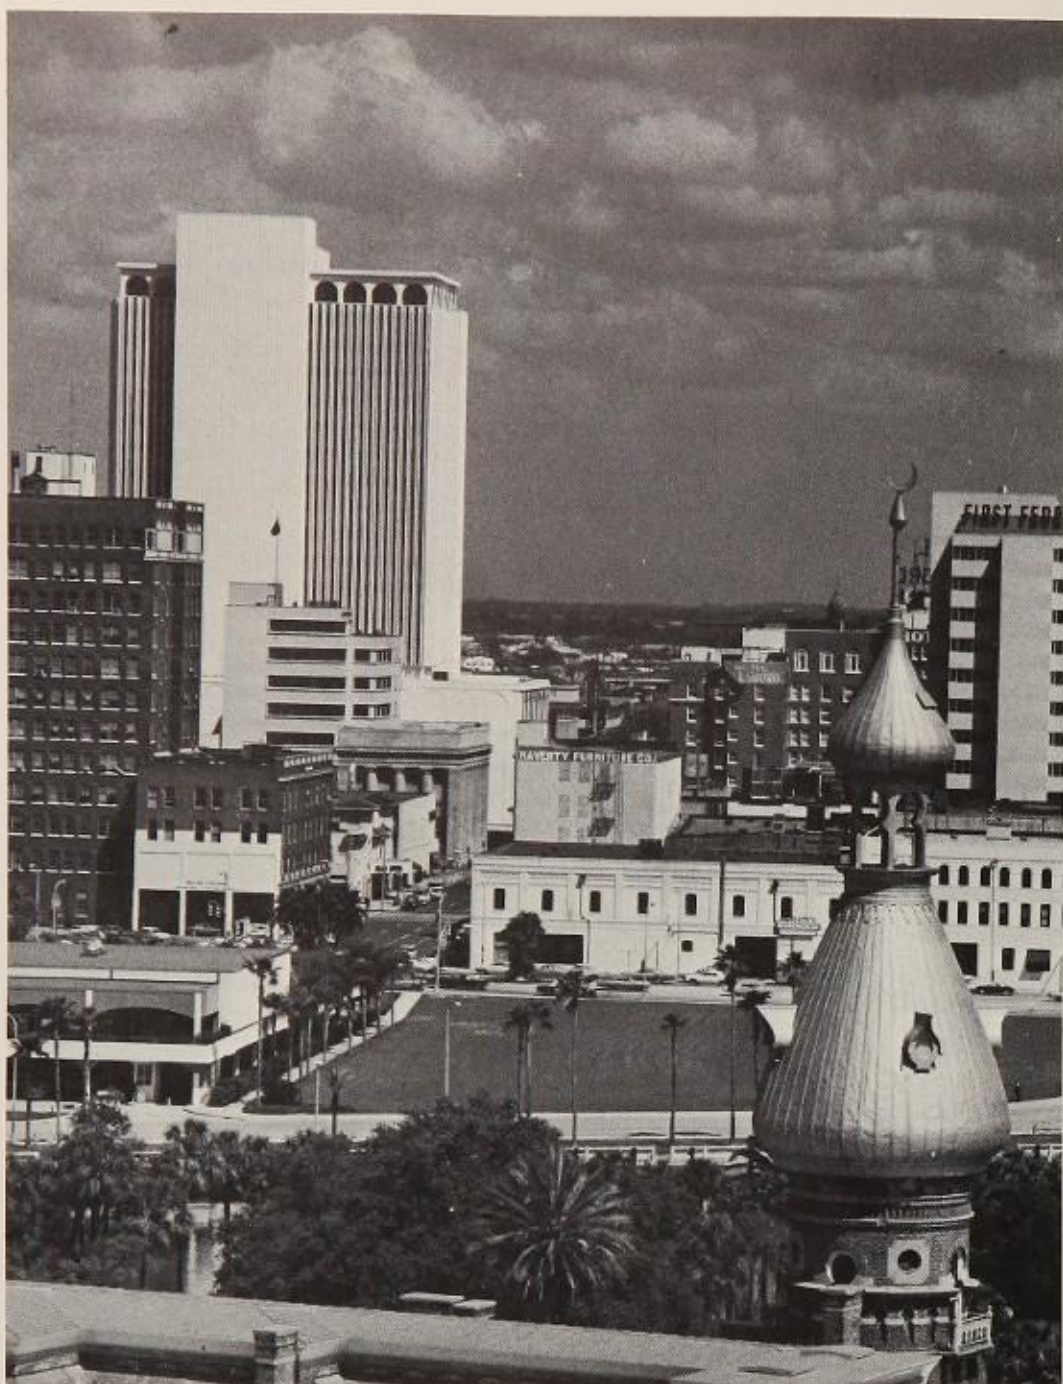

John Sanders unleashes a serve and aces his opponent in a match.

Tennis teams struggle for the triumph of Robinson

TENNIS ... Coach Durnin being instituted as the boys' leader ... Mrs. Fernandez coping with the first RHS girls' team ... practicing on forbidden courts ... playing home run derby ... battling for position ... aching an opponent with a bullet serve ... slamming a shot at your adversary's feet for a score and a win ... using air-to-air strategy to disrupt a foe's concentration ... lashing a shot into the net ... missing your partner's head with a serve in doubles ... hoping for prosperous season to enhance Robinson.

Bottom Row: K. Banks, L. Smith, D. Spray. Top Row: M. Cameron, C. Nunez, J. Sanders, D. Casanueva.

Come one! Come all!
Down first wing's hall;
Pass broken lockers
And in school talkers;
Pass yelling teachers
And very sound sleepers;
Pass memories long
And brains very short;
To a class so mighty,
A class so fine,
That they can only be called . . .
Faulkner's '69!

Your move, Knight!

Sooner than you think, you'll be checking plans for the interior of your own home. We've been helping people make smart moves in that direction since 1948.

EXCALIBUR 1969 dips colors to . . .

Bryn Alan Studios, especially Frank Meier, Bill Stoeltzing, Angel Trespalacios, Paul Baker, and George Vawters for their patience and guidance in times of crises . . .

Mr. Jim Bolin of Taylor Publishing Company for his creative suggestions, indispensable advice, and for helping us to secretly carry out the "big plan" . . .

All of our advertisers and patrons for faithfully supporting the 1969 Excalibur so that it could become a reality . . .

All our parents for allowing us to spend many long hours during weekends, week nights, and holidays and understanding the anxiety right before a deadline . . .

Uncle Jerry and the rest of the administration and faculty for always unlocking any closed doors and for tolerating class absences, interruptions and perpetual excuses . . .

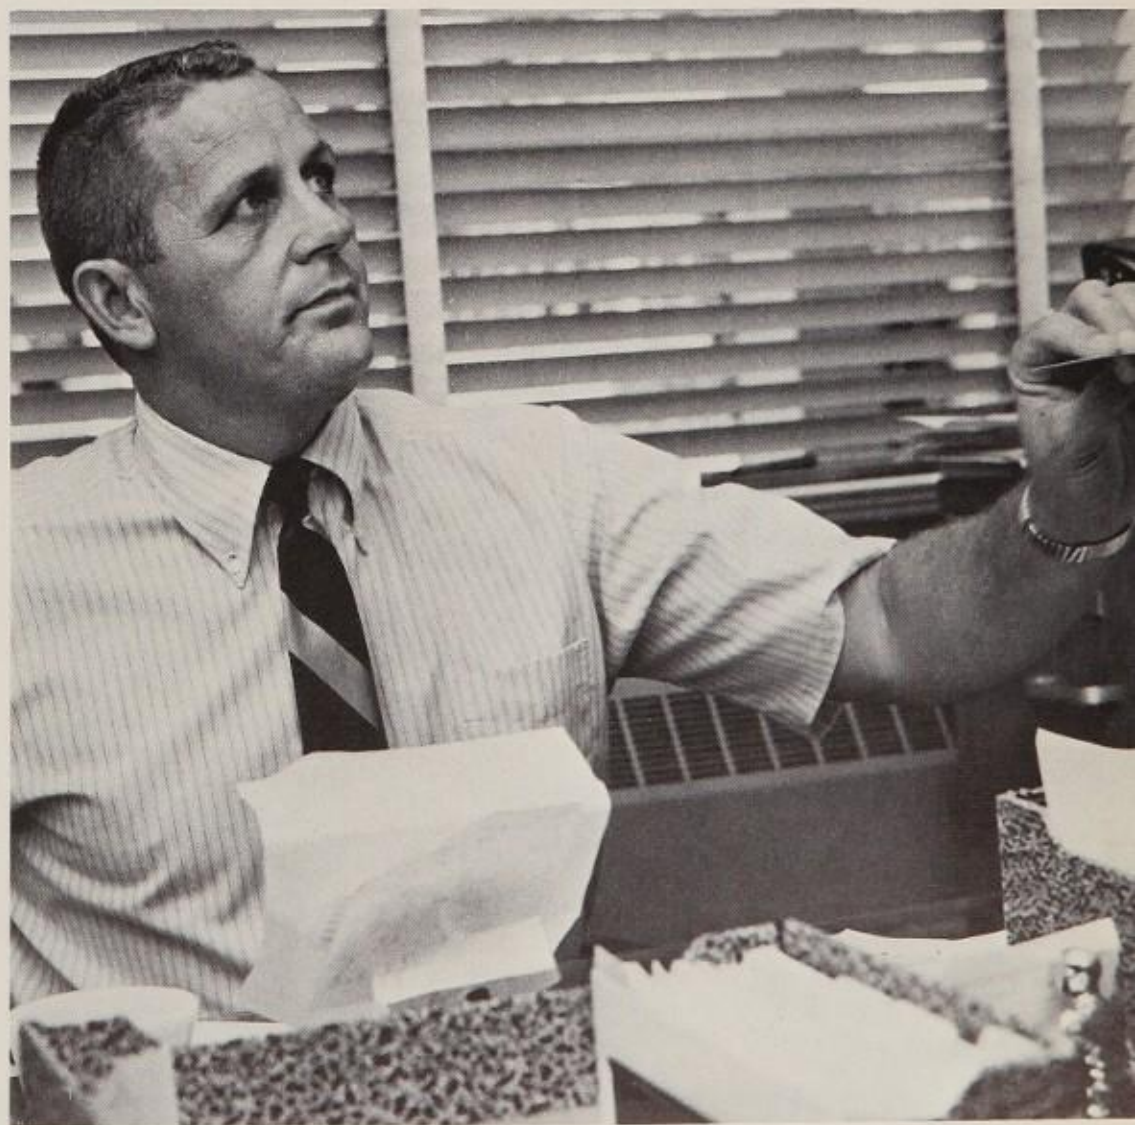

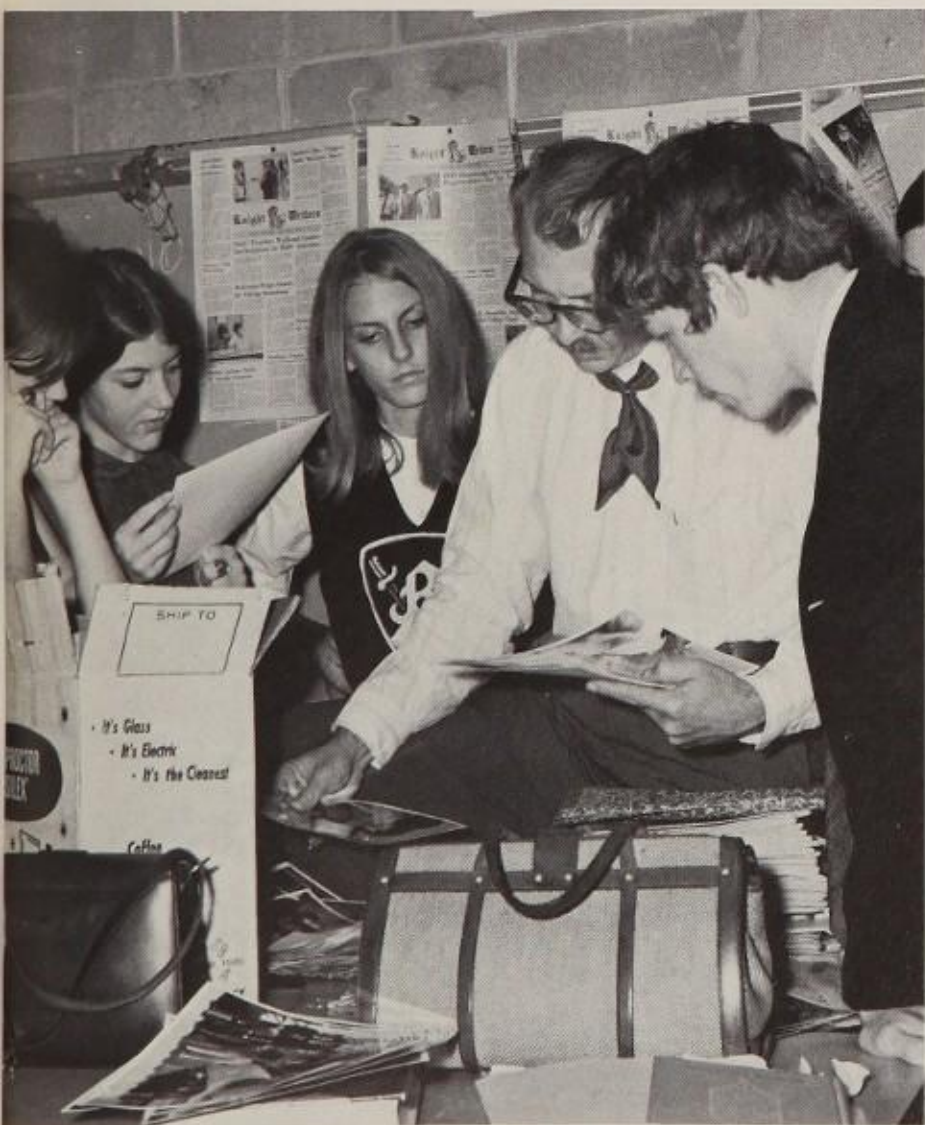

Mr. Jack Overstreet for helping us to grow up while directing us through our everyday trials and tribulations . . .

The 1969 Excalibur staff for devoting their time and much of themselves to create this book.

Sincerely,

Barbara Keyes Browney

*It is over now,
we look and linger in melancholy reverence ...
when souls are searched,
and musing unlocks hidden secrets and desires.
The quiet interlude is upon us,
the banner we had long held dearest is carried along the stream of solemn passing ... away.*

And we must look back

*. . . that one last time upon all that was,
Right or wrong, but always ours,*

We tried *to uphold our standard and perhaps advance its cause.

And though it is changing hands,*

It remains,

. . . our emblazoned coat of arms.*

to a cute and sweet guy.
It was really fun in middle while it lasted.
Good luck all, and stay as you are, and try and stay out of trouble. Love ya
Chris S.

"The World's Best Yearbooks Are Taylor-made"

For many years
I guess you saw a lot of fishes. I showed me a lot of screened of fishes. places this end.
I really think interest is going to sink next year! Not really. But I shouldn't mix some of them losers.
Charlie Small

The traditional Robinson coat of arms, emblazoned upon a green background, with three red cinquefoils on a silver chevron between three golden stags trippant, belonged to the family Robinson of Virginia, originally of Yorkshire, England.

The name Robert, from which Robinson is derived, comes from the Old High German meaning "bright in fame."

*The Robinson shield is particularly beautiful and is symbolic of all that is Robinson. The green background represents youth; the three red cinquefoils, courage. The three golden stags trippant and the one stag upon the crest, portray the four different classes; the silver chevron symbolizes unity; the adornment about the shield, beauty. The scrolled motto Veritas Vincit meaning "Truth Conquers," signifies the dedication of this institution to the constant search for knowledge.*

The quality and meaning infused into the conception and design of this coat of arms are but yesterday's accomplishments. The finishing touches of our shield must be provided by every individual so that the honor and pride for which this coat of arms stands will be sustained and strengthened.
